

Striking Telephone Operators and Wire Men Hold Meeting

Nothing Particularly New in Lowell Strike Situation—Twenty Non-Union Operators at Local Exchange—Trades and Labor Council Votes To Support Strikers

Not a ripple of excitement disturbed the calm waters of the telephone strike situation locally today. The striking operators met this morning at 10 o'clock in conjunction with the 22 striking wire men at Lincoln hall, and aside from saying that indications showed progress in their cause, no comment was forthcoming. Pickets from both organizations continued their usual patrolling of the telephone building and spoke to every person entering the building if he or she looked like a strike breaker. Miss Helen Moran, president of the operators' union, went to Boston this forenoon in response to a rush message from Miss Julia O'Connor, but the purpose was not divulged. Charles J. Leathers, local manager, said this morning that service is being continued on last page.

Attempted Murder and Suicide in Littleton This Morning

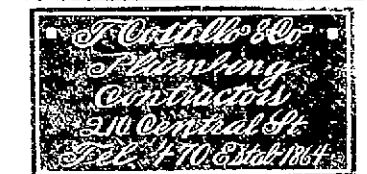

Robert Chalker Shot Wife in Face and Turned Gun on Self—Husband and Wife Now at Hospital

Robert Chalker, 40, of Littleton, shot and seriously injured his wife, Bertha, 35, and afterwards shot himself through the head at their home in Littleton early this morning. Neighbors who heard the shots rushed to Chalker's home, where the shooting took place, and the two were rushed to the Lowell General hospital in an ambulance.

The motive of the attempted murder is unknown to the police. Chalker was confined for several weeks in the asylum at Danvers, following an attack of insanity about six months ago, and it is thought that he suffered a relapse. The neighbors who heard the shots found both lying on the floor and a revolver with two empty chambers nearby. Mrs. Chalker was shot through the left cheek, the bullet passing upwards through her head. Her husband had shot himself through the mouth. They were both rushed to the Lowell General hospital, and at the time of going to press the hospital authorities stated that although seriously injured, neither had been as yet placed on the dangerous list.

PATRIOTS DAY IN LOWELL

Extensive Celebration Here For Soldiers of the 26th Division

Other Heroes Also To Be Feted—The Day's Program in Detail

One of the most extensive April 19th celebrations that Lowell has ever staged is that which municipal, military and fraternal authorities are planning to hold tomorrow in a two-fold observance of Patriots day and the return of Lowell's fighting heroes. The day will be given over almost wholly to the soldiers and sailors in Lowell with the boys of the 26th Division in special prominence. Every effort has been made to throw the city wide open to the returning soldiers, and from the minute they arrive here at 10:40 until the last train pulls out for Camp Devens in the evening, Lowell will be in the hands of her olive drab guests.

The celebration will be the first formal reception that the city has given in honor of the soldiers, and it is but a prelude to a later celebration when a larger number of the city's fighting men will have returned. Just what Lowell will do for her soldier visitors tomorrow is contained in the following program of events, prepared by Mayor Percy D. Thompson, and a copy of which will be given to each soldier at Camp Devens tomorrow morning when he enters for this city. The program and tickets for theatres and passes will be distributed by Col. Charles A. Stevens, who will be in charge of the celebration as far as Lowell is concerned.

Telephone Operators Wanted

The telephone service has been interrupted through the action of some of the operating employees. The Federal Government has ordered this public service re-established. Positions are available to girls seventeen years or over. Experience as telephone operators not essential. Good opportunity for advancement in a well recognized vocation for girls. Labor trouble exists. Apply at the Central Office.

NEW ENGLAND TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

BOSTON, April 18.—Governor Coolidge today asked Postmaster General Burleson whether he objected to the state taking over the operation of the telephone system during the disability of the government to furnish service in New England.

The senate adopted an order asking President Wilson through Secretary Tamm to confer upon William R. Driver, general manager of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co., authority to settle the strike of telephone operators and electrical workers which has caused a suspension virtually of telephone communication in five of the six New England states.

While the senate was thus engaged a resolution was introduced in the house declaring that the strike was not only a serious handicap to the transaction of business in the commonwealth but that it also was endangering the successful promotion of the Victory Liberty loan. The resolution called upon the postmaster general to bring about an equitable and speedy settlement, agreeable to all concerned with special consideration of the public interest or to submit the question to arbitration. Without discussion the resolution was referred to the committee on rules.

In his telegram to Postmaster General Burleson, Governor Coolidge said: "For the duration of the disability of the United States government to furnish telephone service to the New England states, do you object to the commonwealth of Massachusetts taking over the operations until the federal government can again resume its conditions here imperatively demand resumption of telephone service."

The strike situation showed no marked change up to mid-day.

Peters at Washington.
WASHINGTON, April 18.—Mayor Peters of Boston discussed the New England Telephone strike situation for nearly an hour today with Postmaster General Burleson, then went to the White House to see Secretary Tamm.

It was expected that Mr. Burleson would communicate with officials at Boston while Mr. Peters was at the executive mansion and that the second conference might result in some working basis on which the two sides could get together to effect a settlement.

Mr. Peters said he had presented the

Foch Ready To Act if Foe Refuses To Sign Peace Treaty

Will Occupy More German Territory, Blockade Ports and Discontinue Despatch of Food—Peacemakers Expect Early Decision on Fiume and Dalmation Coast

(By the Associated Press)
Conflicting claims to the city of Fiume and the Dalmation coast which have been laid before the peace conference in Paris by Italy and Jugoslavia will probably be brought to a decision soon, if efforts to be exerted by the Italian delegation bear fruit.

Decision Before April 21
This controversy, one of the most troublesome to be considered by the conference, has aroused public sentiment in Italy. When the Italian parliament meets on April 21, it is probable Premier Orlando will be asked for a report on the subject. Hence, he is said especially to desire a settlement before that date.

Conversations on the Adriatic problem have been going on in Paris for some time, but it is indicated that a settlement has not as yet been reached.

Present Terms Next Saturday
According to present plans the allied terms of peace may not be laid before the Germans before Saturday of next week and it may not be until the following Monday that the enemy delegation will be asked for

HOLD OPEN HOUSE

Soldiers Will Be Welcome at Community Service Club

The Young Women's Community service club, with headquarters on the top floor of the Rialto building, will hold open house all day tomorrow to aid in the entertainment of the thousands of soldiers who will spend the holiday in Lowell. An opportunity will be afforded for dancing in the afternoon and in the evening the usual dance to orchestra music will be held. Refreshments of sandwiches and coffee will be served throughout the day and a cordial invitation is extended to every service man to make this jolly club his rendezvous. The club rooms also will be open all day tomorrow.

This community centre has grown tremendously since Mrs. Noble came from St. Paul to take charge and last week two additional rooms were artistically furnished and now form a part of the well appointed suite. Mrs. Noble said this morning that many girls who attend the club are out of work and that some means of alleviating this condition are now under discussion.

The club plans to support a summer camp for its girls this year if a suitable, secluded spot can be found. Mrs. Noble will be very grateful to anyone who may let her know of such a camp which is not going to be used this year, and which may be leased for the season by the club.

INFANT MORTALITY HIGH

Lowell had the highest infant mortality rate of any large city in the entire country for the week ending April 12. The city's rate was 26.5. Rochester was second with 25.8, Providence third, with 23.5, and Fall River fourth, with 18.4. Nashville, Tenn., was low with 4.8 and the average was 12.7.

STORM AGAIN DELAYS START OF FLIGHT

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., April 18.—A driving, off-shore snow storm which had blanketed the ground with a six inch mantle and was still in progress at mid-forenoon, effectually put a stop today to activities of the aviators waiting here for a favorable opportunity to attempt a transatlantic flight.

When Harry Hawker, Australian pilot of the Sopwith biplane team, and Captain Frederick P. Raynham, British driver of the Martinsyde, went to their hangars a half gale was blowing from the sea.

Hawker plainly was reticent under Raynham's readiness for the "jump off" after his successful trial flight yesterday, while each pilot was watching the movements of the other and his mechanics for indications of a second start.

Raynham, dissatisfied with the Martinsyde's radiator, installed a new one and hopes to make another trial flight before setting out for Ireland. He wishes also to test his machine's dual control.

Hawker has no secondary control on his Sopwith and will have to pilot his craft alone while Raynham can be relieved at intervals by Morgan, an experienced aviator.

WILSON WILL NOT ACT ON IRISH QUESTION

PARIS, April 18.—Among the many conferences held by President Wilson yesterday was one with Frank P. Walsh of Kansas City, chairman of the delegation appointed by the recent congress of the Friends of Irish Freedom in the United States to urge the claims of Ireland to recognition by the peace conference.

While no official statement has been given out, it is reported in well informed quarters that President Wilson took the stand that the question of Ireland's claims had not been brought before the peace conference by anybody, and that as president of the United States he could not introduce such a question.

He made it plain that his views hadn't changed since the delegation called to see him in New York on the eve of his sailing for France, when he plainly intimated that it would be outside his province to bring up such a question before the peace conference.

Confer at Paris White House

PARIS, April 18.—Frank P. Walsh, formerly chairman of the national war labor board, ex-Governor Edward F. Dunne of Illinois and Michael J. Ryan, of Philadelphia, the delegation sent by Irish societies in America to plead the cause of Ireland before the peace conference, had a long conference at the Paris "White House" today. The conference was an outgrowth of the interview Mr. Walsh had yesterday with President Wilson.

The American delegation to the peace conference up to this time, has refused to receive Sean O'Connell and George C. Duffy, the delegates of the Irish provisional government here.

When Mr. Dunne and his associates reached Paris on April 11, they were met at the station by Messrs. O'Connell and Duffy, who told them that the great powers would refuse to hear them.

CASES HEARD IN POLICE COURT

That a man has no right to transport passengers for profit through a city or town which has an ordinance requiring jitneys to be licensed was the decision of Judge Enright in police court this morning. The statement was made in the case of Alsan H. Lakin, who was called on continuance on a complaint charging him with violating the city jitney ordinance by bringing passengers to Lowell in his automobile from North Chelmsford and Camp Devens.

Lakin admitted having brought passengers into the city, but said that he considered he had a right to bring people into Lowell as long as he did not carry any one from the city. He was ordered to pay a fine of $10, and appealed.

George Guyette of Westford was present on a drunkenness charge. The arresting officer reported that George had celebrated his arrival in Lowell last night by getting drunk and had attempted to "start something" in a downtown lunch cart, with the result that he had been forcibly ejected. This did not meet with George's approval, and he retaliated by putting his fist through the glass in the door. In order to give him an opportunity to make restitution the case was continued until Monday for sentence.

William J. McCarthy and Waino Anderson, two soldiers from Camp Devens, were charged with the larceny of $10 from Michael J. Feeney of this city. A continuance was granted until Wednesday.

Several offenders charged with

LOWELL'S DEATH RATE
Lowell's death rate for the present week is 13.99 against 16.37 and 17.82 for the previous two weeks. There were 27 deaths. Of these, seven were of children under five years of age and five of children under one. There were five deaths caused by infectious diseases, four by pneumonia and one by bronchitis. Diphtheria caused four deaths and tuberculosis four. The infectious diseases reported included: Diphtheria, 11; measles, 8; infantile paralysis, 1; and tuberculosis, 2.

DRACUT WILL STOP AUTO SPEEDING

A mass meeting of residents of Dracut will be held this evening in Orange hall, Centre village for the purpose of requesting the board of selectmen to take action relative to the establishment of a speed limit on the state highway in that portion of Dracut between Lowell and Lawrence.

This movement was started in the Kenwood section after numerous accidents had occurred. It is claimed that motorists go through the Dracut portion of the highway at break-neck speed and that the residents of the district are constantly in danger of being injured or killed. The accident, which occurred a few days ago and which resulted in the death of Mrs. Alexander Leblanc has caused great indignation and the residents of the district hope the board of selectmen will take drastic measures in order that this week's accident will not be duplicated. The meeting is called for 8 o'clock and it is hoped it will be largely attended.

SEC. DANIELS VIEWS MARINES

Has First Glimpse of "Soldiers of the Sea" on Duty Abroad

Inspects Heroes From Parapet of Famous Fortress Ehrenbreitstein on Rhine

CORLIENZ, Thursday, April 17.—(By the Associated Press)—From a parapet of the fortress Ehrenbreitstein, more than 400 feet above the junction of the Moselle and Rhine, Secretary Daniels today had his first glimpse of American marines on duty abroad. Patrol boats were darting back and forth among the barges and tugs on the river, the American flag streaming from the stern mast of each little boat.

At the point where the Moselle joins the Rhine stands a heroic statue of Emperor William I, said to be the largest of its kind in Germany. Beyond the statue there are great piles of lumber which aroused Secretary Daniels' curiosity as he looked down upon the activity of Coblenz, which has been increased two fold by the American occupation of the city. It was explained to him that the lumber was intended for new buildings to serve as recreation centers and barracks for the American army of occupation.

The secretary was taken through the underground passages of the fortress which were built partly by labor paid for by 20,000,000 francs which the Germans exacted from France. He was shown the accommodations of American soldiers, where by a few months ago thousands of German soldiers had been quartered. He also inspected the motorized equipment of the 15th Artillery regiment, which under Col. D. V. McCabe, former cavalry officer and commander of Ehrenbreitstein, is said to be the first American artillery unit fully equipped with motors.

The secretary tomorrow will review the Second division which includes a brigade of marines. He will go to Wiesbaden on Saturday and will return

This Offer Positively Ends April 30

The reason why many people suffering from catarrhal troubles are not cured is because they cannot afford to receive proper treatment on account of the present business depression. The offer of the nominal fee rate of 8 visits for $3 is given at this time by Dr. Powell so that all sufferers from catarrhal diseases may afford to receive treatment as often as it is needed.

I take this opportunity of notifying all those who require treatment for catarrhal troubles that until April 30 my fee for treatment will be a charge of $3.00 for eight office treatments. In order to take advantage of this low offer it will be necessary to visit my office and enroll your name on or before April 30. All patients who begin their treatment on or before that date, will receive treatment as long as they require it without any increase in this rate.

It is advisable to call as early as possible in order to avoid the rush and confusion that will naturally occur during the closing days of this unusual offer.

ARE YOU GOING DEAF?

Dr. Powell's specialty is freeing obstructed nostrils, treating deafness and head noises and healing sore places in the breathing tubes. He has spent 25 years studying the best way to do this. He can usually free the nostrils without cutting away the bones of the nose. His treatment is absolutely painless.

QUESTIONS FOR THE SICK

Are you afflicted with CATARRH, the symptoms and consequences of which are too well known to be repeated?

Are you afflicted with DEAFNESS, partial or complete?

Are you worried by ringing noises in the head or the extension of the catarrhal process to the ears?

Do you suffer from DYSPEPSIA, loss of appetite, bloating in the stomach or any of the forms of catarrhal inflammation of the digestive organs?

Have you a severe BRONCHIAL TROUBLE, hacking cough, pain in the chest, loss of sleep?

Have you been warned of approaching consumption?

Are you a sufferer from ASTHMA?

Have you been led to believe that your disease is incurable?

IS YOUR HEART AFFECTED?

Do you suffer from an OPPRESSED FEELING, a CHOKING or SMOTHERING SENSATION, IRRREGULAR PULSE, SHORTNESS OF BREATH or FLUTTERING or PALPITATIONS?

Do you suffer from KIDNEY trouble? Have you pain in your back, and have you been told that your MALADY will result in a SERIOUS if not a FATAL DISEASE?

Do you suffer from LIVER complaint? Are you continually MELANCHOLIC, unhappy and miserable, without any good reason why?

Do you suffer from NERVOUS trouble, which afflicts so many at this time, when care is taken too heavily?

The new and real iron tonic, Peptiron, is prepared in the convenient form of chocolate coated pills, easy to take, easy to carry about with you; no water, no alcohol, no opiate.

Peptiron is the essence of economy, the acme of efficiency. It is readily assimilated, acts promptly and powerfully upon the blood and nerves, corrects all run-down conditions, creates an appetite, gives stomach comfort and healthful digestion. It wards off impending illness, bridges over the danger spots, and increases power of resisting disease.

Do not put off treatment in these times so perilous to health, but get Peptiron and begin to take it today, two after each meal.

You'll not regret being particular to get Peptiron, and no other. Like many others, you will be surprised at its promptness in building you up. Adv.

Peptiron by way of the Rhine. He was accompanied to the fortress today by Mrs. Daniels, Rear Admiral Robert S. Griffin, David W. Taylor, Ralph K. Harris and Andrew T. Loon. Brigadier General Logan Feland and Commander Panard, Foote and Barber.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONVENTION

The program of the Christian Endeavor convention to be held tomorrow afternoon at the First Congregational church will open with a session at 2 o'clock and continue until 5:30 p. m. Rev. John Currie, a Y.M.C.A. war secretary will give an address, and Rev. Francis Russell, on leave from duty in the Philippines, will speak on "The Call of the East."

Dr. William Shaw, general secretary of the World's E. E. Union, will be the principal speaker, talking for his topic, "After the War—What?" A general discussion conference will be held by A. J. Shurtle.

The evening meeting will commence at 7 o'clock, when Mr. Shurtle will speak on "Christian Endeavor Opportunity."

LEAN DAYS FOR THE MONEY LENDER

(Special to The Sun)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, April 18.—The draft law, which sent thousands of men into the army and navy, and the scarcity of labor during the war, which resulted in high wages, has made the business of the professional money lender the leanest in the history of the "profession," according to the report of Frank H. Pope, supervisor of loan agencies.

"The main reason for the extraordinary decline in the money-lending business was due to the large number of men who entered the service," says Mr. Pope. "Knowing that these men would be practically deluged from borrowing money a virtual embargo was placed upon thousands of individuals who usually were borrowers."

Attempts by the lenders to make collections were materially impeded by the fact that the law makes it virtually impossible to collect from a man in the service.

"Efforts made by some of the lenders to collect either interest or principal met in most instances with little success," says the statement. "An illustration of conditions as they existed is shown by the case of a delinquent at Camp Devens who when written to to meet his payments, refused the money lender to give him stamps as he wasn't going to pay at that time and knew that he did not have to pay them. His suggestion was accepted."

"Another reason for the decline in the volume of business from the licensed money-lenders was that many borrowers who had been getting an ordinary wage had come into the munition plants and other lines of industry where very much higher wages were paid them than they had received before. Therefore they were placed in such an improved financial condition that they did not have to resort to borrowing."

"It is also true, however, that many causes developed in which persons receiving much higher wages found they were not sufficient to meet their demands, as they were profligate in their expenditures, continued in an imprudent state, and were found to remain on the list of borrowers." HOYT.

CESSATION OF TRAIN SERVICE ON MAY 1

ATTENDANCE OFFICER

Competitive Examination, May 13, For Position in the School Department

(Special to The Sun)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, April 18.—A competitive examination for the position of attendance officers in the service of the Lowell school department will be held May 13. It is open to both men and women. At present there is a vacancy at a salary of $1400 a year to be filled by a woman.

Applicants must be not less than 30 years old at the time of filing applications. The limitation of age does not apply to veterans. A certificate of date of birth must be filed with the application.

The subjects of examination with their respective weights will be as follows: Training and experience, 25; report, 1; practical questions on training law, the employment of children, etc., 1; total, 34.

Applicants are required to obtain a mark of at least 65 per cent in experience. Successful applicants may also be given a physical examination. In making certification preference will be given residents of Lowell.

Application blanks can be obtained from James H. Carmichael, civil service representative, Central block, Lowell, or from the civil service commission, State house, Boston.

In order to receive notice to appear at any of the examination, scheduled on file at least ten days before the date set for holding the examination.

Only citizens of the United States who have been residents of Massachusetts for the past year have a right to apply.

CYCLE OUTLET CO.

A bicycle on easy terms is the policy of the new bicycle establishment, the Cycle Outlet company, 125 Paige street. The new firm carries a large and varied line of leading makes of "wheels" in all the models and styles that are in popular demand. Anyone in the market for a good bike will do well to give the large stock of this company the "once over" for they will undoubtedly find just the bicycle they want at the right price and convenient terms.

STILL SEEK HELP FOR FARM WORK

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Despite the surplus of labor reported in many sections of the country, efforts of the United States employment service to secure labor for work on the farms have met with little success, says a statement today by the department of labor.

Reports received for the week ending April 12 from 39 cities indicate an improvement in unemployment conditions.

Labor supply and demand in Connecticut shows a marked improvement during the week. Portland reports a surplus of 1900, the only city in Maine showing a surplus. Labor supply and demand in New Hampshire and Vermont indicate an equality.

NOTED ARCHITECT

Dr. Cady, Who Designed Famous Buildings, Dead

NEW YORK, April 18.—Dr. J. Cleveland Cady, an architect, who designed the Metropolitan Opera House and the American Museum of Natural History in this city, 15 of the Yale university buildings and other notable structures in eastern colleges, died at his home here today. He was 82 years of age. He was president of the Skin and Cancer hospital.

GERMAN PEACE DELEGATE ILL

BERLIN, Thursday, April 17.—Dr. Adolph Mueller, German minister to Switzerland, and one of the members of the German delegation to the peace conference in Paris, and Herr Leinert, president of the Prussian assembly, will replace him as peace delegate.

HOLY FRIDAY SERVICES

Holy Friday services will be held at the Greek Orthodox church in Jefferson street this evening in accordance with the rites of the church, and the ceremony as in previous years will be very elaborate. It is only every five years that the calendars of the eastern and western churches coincide. Special services will be held in the church in the early part of the evening and at 9:30 o'clock a procession through the principal streets of the district will take place.

Stomach Pains Almost Drove Woman Frantic

Manchester Resident Regained Health When She Used This Tonic Treatment

Rich, red blood is absolutely necessary to good digestion. This is a fact which every sufferer from indigestion or stomach trouble should keep in mind when he is seeking relief from the distress which follows meals, the flatulency and sourness. Impoverished blood impairs the activity of the gastric glands and weakens the muscles of the stomach. On the other hand imperfect digestion prevents the blood from receiving proper nourishment and causes it to become defective in quantity and quality.

A tonic, therefore, that is a specific for this blood will improve the digestion, and an improved digestion will hasten the correction of the anemic condition. The efficacy of this treatment is illustrated in the case of Mrs. Lillian Dow, of No. 135 Amherst street, Manchester, N. H. She says:

"I suffered from stomach trouble for years and sometimes became so weak that I could do no work without resting. Gradually my color returned and my stomach gained strength. I no longer suffer from indigestion and I sleep well and can eat heartily without any distress. I feel good now. My weight had decreased to 85 pounds before I began the treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I now weigh 150 pounds. It has given me great pleasure to recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to my friends."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic for the blood and nerves. They begin at once to build up the system weakened by excess or overwork. The rich, red blood soon begins to show in cheeks and lips, the step is quicker, the eyes brighter and the good effect is felt in every organ of the body.

Two useful books, "Diseases of the Nervous System" and "What to Eat and How to Eat" will be sent free by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or you can order them direct by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents a box, six boxes for $2.50. Adv.

FORMALLY RECOGNIZES GERMAN GOVERNMENT

BERNE, Thursday, April 17.—The federal government has accepted letters crediting Dr. Adolph Mueller as German minister to Switzerland, thus formally recognizing the German government.

GEN. MARCH TO VISIT DEVENS

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Gen. Peyton March, chief of staff, will leave Washington tonight to make an official inspection of the army camps in New England, New York and New Jersey. His first stop will be at Camp Devens. After completing the tour of the northeastern camps, Gen. March will go to the middle west, visiting Camp Sherman, Grant and Pike. An inspection of Camp Meade and Lee and the embarkation port of Newport News will follow on his return to Washington.

MORE TROOPS RETURN

NEW YORK, April 18.—The steamship Otsego arrived today from Bordeaux with 192 troops, the majority comprising the 19th, 20th, 20th, 25th, 36th and 45th, balloon companies.

Need This Spring

Of a Good Tonic Medicine, Nerve Builder and Blood Purifier

Is greater than ever before. The nervous strain, worry and anxiety caused by the war.

The debilitating effects of the terrible influenza, grip and pneumonia.

The depletion of the blood by indoor life in winter.

Have tremendously overdrawn the reserve strength of nearly every man and woman.

This makes the favorite Spring medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, more of a necessity now than ever before.

For your impaired, exhausted blood, and for that extreme tired feeling sure to come, prepare yourself now.

Today begin to recover your lost strength by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the standard Spring medicine and blood purifier, which creates a keen appetite, aids digestion and assimilation. Remember, Hood's Pills if you need a mild laxative.—Adv.

LOWELL TO HAVE REAL PURE FOOD SHOW

Through the courtesy of Mr. George C. Fairburn, over 30 of the most famous pure food manufacturers of the country are going to turn Fairburn's market in Merrimack square into a regular Mechanics building edition of domestic science exhibits, to be called Lowell's First Annual Pure Food show.

The Uneda Boy will be there and with him little Miss Domino, with all her frills, the Campbell Kids, the Sun-kist Girl, the Dromedary Camel, all the way from the tropical oasis laden with dates and coconuts, the Gold Medal Man, and goodness knows how many more, but you will recognize many old friends, who smile out a cheery greeting from newspaper pages. And it's all free! No goods will be sold, no orders taken, nor admission charged.

The demonstrators and lecturers are coming prepared to entertain at least ten thousand people and, because of the fact that only one afternoon can be allotted to Lowell, no children, unless accompanied by grown people, will be admitted. The doors open promptly at 2 o'clock and for three hours every visitor will receive samples, cook books, recipes, and valuable literature from each booth.

Mr. H. P. Woodward of the American Sugar Refining company, will be in charge of the manufacturers' exhibits, and Mr. George C. Fairburn, Lowell's bustling young grocer, and Mr. L. F. Gendron, manager of the big food market, will be in charge of the floor and will see that everybody has a good time. Remember the date—Wednesday, April 23rd, 2 to 5 p. m.

The following well known products will be exhibited:
Domino cane sugar, National Biscuit company, Dromedary products, Jiffy, Campbell's soups, Bimford Baking Powder, Sun-kist fruits and marmalade, Libby, McNeil & Libby, Ward's cake, Van Camp's spaghetti, Gold Medal flour, Beecham products, Slicker & Poor's spices, Savitay (the new shortening), Baker's extracts, Crisco, Teco Pancake flour, Kellogg's corn flakes, Douglas Salad oil, Curtis Marshmallow creme and many others.

ROUND THE CLOCK WITH EASTER FASHIONS

NINE A. M.

When New York alarm clocks bring: "Nine" the beautiful young person planning an Easter promenade puts on this delectable creation of pink georgette crepe, creamy lace, and silver ribbons, with a few silk roses, pink satin slippers, and a silver tissue morning cap to make life seem worth while. It's nice to get up in the morning when costumed like this!

ELEVEN A. M.

And when midday of New York takes the air she covers her frock with this swanky, swagger, swinging beauty of a cape. Checks—large ones of dark brown and light tan duvelin, and a pale brown silk lining which insists on recognition, as full length reverses, make this cape easy to follow with the eye.

ONE O'CLOCK

We go to lunch! And aren't we glad when we behold that the checkeredboard cape has concealed one glorious trout-frock of French blue gloveskin! Ah, such a fit—and such perfect corseting as it demands. There is the new casque bodice—wrinkled—yet fitted—and long, and flaring of sleeve. There's also the new reverse girde of satin, richly beaded.

FOUR P. M.

One drinks tea in New York—not for the refreshment, but for fashion's sake! And to show one's spring suit! This diverting model of a suit is ravens' wing serge, with a waist-coat of that positively 1919 model—orchid-blue in silk. There are, of course, braid, and buttons, and the inevitable sash.

EIGHT P. M.

It's awfully smart in night-time New York to play among the white lights attired in brilliant red and blue—gowns, dear!—not lights! Here's an evening gown of mikado red flouting, a cape, with marvelous Lithuanian embroidery woven in pearl beads! This one-piece frock is really a drape—beginning at the back, dropped low, and carried to the back of the corsage to end in a Watteau train.

14 U. S. SOLDIERS KILLED

Trains in Collision Near Le Mans, France—Twenty-Five Others Injured

PARIS, April 18.—Fourteen American and six French soldiers were killed when an express train carrying American troops crashed into a stationary train with French soldiers on furlough near Le Mans yesterday. Twenty-five Americans and 22 Frenchmen were injured. Le Mans is in the department of Sarthe, west of Paris.

SARGENT BOY WAS INJURED AT PLAY

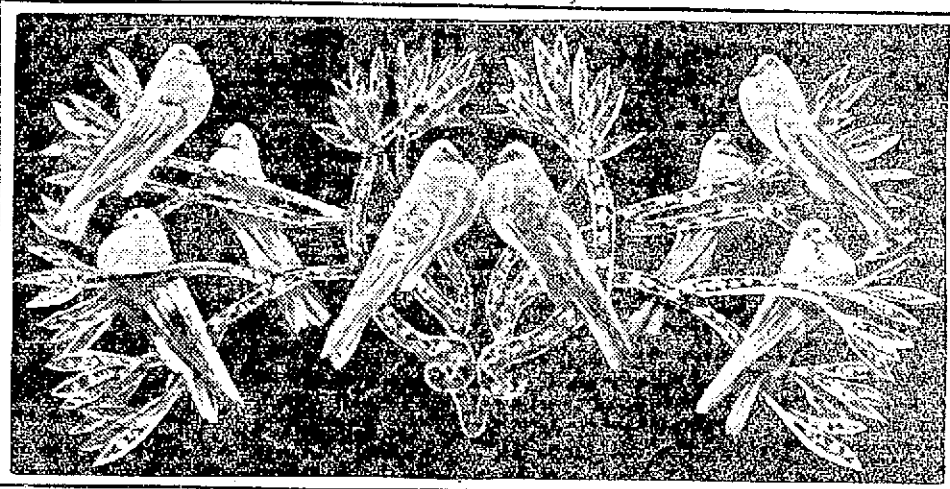

Principal Henry H. Harris of the Varnum school after investigating the accident to Charles Sargent, the 12-year-old boy, who is in a serious condition at the Lowell hospital, found that Sargent, who is not robust, was playing a game called "Daddy I'm on your castle," in which one boy occupies some slight elevation and the others try to dispossess him. It was while Sargent was on "the castle" that he fell down the flight of four stone steps, leading to the school entrance. He was sent to his home and Dr. E. G. Livingston attended him. Later it was found that the boy was suffering from internal injuries and hence his removal to the hospital.

A WILL AND A WAY

That women are very much in earnest in helping to put the Fifth Victory Liberty loan "across" is emphasized by Mrs. F. L. Higginson, chairman of the New England Woman's Liberty loan committee, who tells of the clever methods of a town publicity chairman who is handicapped for time to give to the work. This chairman is the head of a popular baking establishment, and so confined to her business that she cannot go out to do all the work she would like to, but the will and the way are not wanting. At considerable expense to herself for suitable time, she is baking her bread loaves V shaped, her doughnuts are V-shaped, also her cookies, both sugar and molasses. Her breakfast muffins are famous, and they, and buns, and all sort of small cakes are in Vs. She has changed the name of her shop to the Victory Bakeshop. Needless to say, her goods are the talk of the town, her sales have increased and interest in the Victory loan is materially stimulated.

"CAN I BE CURED?" SAYS THE SUFFERER

How often have you heard that and cry from the victims of disease. Perhaps the disorder has gone too far for help, but oftener it is just in its first stages and the pains and aches are only nature's first cries for help. Do not despair. Find out the cause and give nature all the help you can and she will repay you with health. Look after the kidneys. The kidneys are the most overworked organs of the human body, and when they fail in their work of filtering and throwing off the poison that constantly accumulates in the system, everything goes wrong. GOLD MEDAL Haaslem Oil Capsules will give almost immediate relief from kidney and bladder troubles and their kindred ailments. They will free your body from pain in short order. But be sure to get GOLD MEDAL. Look for the name on every box. In three sizes, sealed packages. Money refunded if they do not help you.

IT'S MRS. WILSON'S NEW BREAST-PIN!

BY BETTY BROWN

Behold a picture of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson's newest breast-pin! This masterpiece of jewels was presented to the "first lady of the land" of America by the municipality of Paris, on the occasion of her first visit to the French capital. The pin was presented many weeks ago, but the public is permitted to see it for the first time via a photograph.

Just put on exhibition in a New York art gallery. Mrs. Wilson brought the pin home with her in February. She has never worn it, but the probability is it will make its debut at the first White House reception following the Wilsons' return from France. Designed by Rene Lalique, a French master craftsman, the jewel is a triumph of the jeweler's art. The olive branch upon which the design is based is of gold, covered with diamonds, and the eight doves are of translucent enamel upon a burnished gold background which produces an effect of shadows and motion in the changing lights on the pin. The pin is five and three-fourths inches wide, and two and one-half inches from top to bottom. Accompanying the jewel is a hand-somely wrought case to contain it—a metal frame with inlay of glass and brilliantly enamelled butterflies and leaf motifs.

Popular Brockton Woman Restored to Health

Brockton, Mass.—Mrs. Fred Tighe, who lives at 119 Clinton street in this city, and who is an exceedingly popular woman in her set, says that the new treatment called Iron-Lax-Tonic has done her a world of good. Mrs. Tighe says that people should start taking Iron-Lax-Tonic at once if they are suffering from nervousness, palpitation of the heart, paleness, weakness, upset stomach and irregular bowels and rundown condition, that always tired feeling, or any other indication that the stomach, bowels, nerves and general health are worn out and run down.

Start taking Iron-Lax-Tonic at once and almost right away you can feel the benefits.

After you are restored to health and vigor it doesn't do any harm to continue with the tablets for a little while to build up an extra reserve strength and vitality.

Buy it today at Lowell Pharmacy, Howard, the Druggist, Downs Drug Store, and all leading druggists.—ADV.

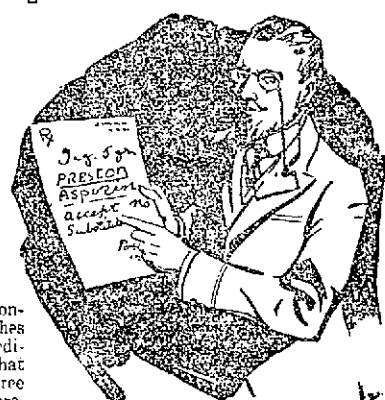

Why Doctors Prefer Preston-Aspirin Tablets

In prescribing for pains, aches and other disorders and, in many cases, specify only Preston-Aspirin on account of its proven purity.

Public warned against impure inferior Aspirin

Of great interest to the public is the surprising number of successful physicians who prescribe only Preston-Aspirin for their patients who suffer from headaches, colds, grippe and similar conditions where there are pains, aches and inflammation. Up-to-date medical men understand the harm that may come from aspirin containing free salicylic acid and they are, therefore, quick to realize the advantages of Preston-Aspirin which is guaranteed absolutely pure and therefore more efficacious in the treatment of physical disorders indicated.

Many people do not recognize the difference that may exist between various aspirins and do not seem to appreciate how harmful a worthless imitation may be. Impure aspirin may not only fail to give any relief whatever, but, on the contrary, may cause distress and prove very injurious to the whole system. Therefore the public is advised to have a doctor or druggist test their aspirin with a CHLORIDE OF IRON SOLUTION to prove its purity. But if you do not care to go to this trouble, be sure you ask for and get Preston's—The Aspirin Of Proven Purity—for no safer and surer way can be found to protect public health against inferior products.

Preston-Aspirin is recommended for headaches, colds, grippe, neuritis, influenza symptoms, rheumatism, sciatica, gout, lumbago, toothaches, earaches and other disorders. It conforms to requirements of the British Pharmacopoeia, the U.S. Government, and has been bought in ten million lots for America's fighting forces. If you value purity and seek the best possible results, insist upon PRESTON-ASPIRIN and accept no other. Dispensed by all good druggists. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. NEXT BIG TIDE OF WAR TAXES WILL FLOW INTO U. S. TREASURY APR. 30

Sum Big, But 20 Per Cent. Lower Than if War Was On---Taxes on Motor Trucks, Automobiles, Etc.

BY A. E. GELDHOF
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 18.—The next big flow of taxes into the United States treasury will be witnessed on April 30, when dealers are to make their returns to the bureau of internal revenue on the goods sold between February 25, when the revenue act went into effect, and March 1.

Officials of the internal revenue bureau are hopeful that this payment will be as proportionately as the first payment of income and excess profits taxes on March 15, which exceeded $1,000,000,000.

Among the goods for which taxes must be paid on April 30 are motor trucks, automobiles, musical instruments, candy and chewing gum, sporting goods, cameras, firearms and hunting weapons, electric fans, thermos bottles, smokers' articles, hot machines, bicycles, hunting and riding habits, articles made of fur, pleasure yachts and motor boats, toilet soaps, sculpture, paintings and works of art.

Any sales of these goods made by retail dealers between Feb. 25 and March 1 must be reported to the internal revenue collectors of their respective districts and the taxes paid on them April 30. The returns are to be made monthly thereafter. That is, the tax for the goods sold during March must be paid on May 31. Thus dealers are given a month in which to tabulate their reports.

Not Luxury Taxes

These are not the so-called "luxury taxes" which cover wearing apparel and do not go into effect until May 1. The tax on these goods may be added to the selling price of the article, but in the case of the luxury taxes the purchaser must be informed how much tax is being paid.

"These excise taxes," said Daniel C. Roper, commissioner of internal revenue, Uncle Sam's tax gatherer extraordinary, "are related more intimately to the taxpayer than the income taxes, because they come more frequently."

"No law can be enforced beyond the willingness of public sentiment to support it. Therefore we want the public to co-operate with us in gathering the taxes. Our men are working night and day, almost without hours, to analyze the revenue law and transfer it equitably to the public.

"The law is not so complicated as most people think. If you can make people see that their neighbors are paying just as heavy taxes as they are, they will be satisfied."

Work End Helps

"If the war had lasted six months longer, I should now be trying to get 20 per cent more in taxes out of the American people. We started out before the armistice was signed to write a revenue bill that would produce eight billion dollars. We wound up by passing one that will produce six billions."

"It is estimated that four of these six billions will come from the incomes of individuals and corporations; the rest from a varied assortment of items like the excise and luxury taxes."

"The new law taxes some articles sold by retail dealers, in which it differs from the 1917 law, which taxed only the producer. The producer passed the tax on the purchaser by increasing his price. Under the new law, passing the excise taxes on to the purchaser in this way is strictly a private transaction. The government's only interest is to see that the tax is collected, but it will also see that the dealer does not misrepresent the tax and sell his goods for a price higher than his original selling price plus the tax."

"I ask the patience of the public in dealing with any delays or errors that the revenue bureau may make in collecting the taxes. It should be borne in mind that when I took charge of the bureau 18 months ago, it had only 2000 employees. Now it has 11,000, and these new employees have to be trained as we go along."

Tells Dyspeptics What To Eat

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas on Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due to an excess of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. "Acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and suffers could do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bismarck Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no purer, safer or more reliable stomach antidote than Bismarck Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a detergent, but a transparent oil of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the most digestible and healthiest food without need of pills or artificial digestants.

Get a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or elixir and in the Bismarck form is not a laxative. Try this plan and see what you want at your next meal and if it isn't the best advice you ever had on "What to eat."

SEC. REDFIELD WARNS COUNTRY

TO "GO AFTER" UNFAIR PRICE BOOSTERS

NEW YORK, April 18.—The pioneer is one of the chief perils of the present stage of American commercial reconstruction, according to Secretary William C. Redfield of the department of commerce, writing in the current number of "Investor & Trader," on the probable effect of the peace treaty. The secretary's statement, however, is most optimistic as to the country's business future, calling attention to the fact that the condition of the country is sound with bank resources never larger or more liquid.

"We have a great loan to face and heavy taxes to pay, but we shall meet them fearlessly and successfully and in a few months shall find that our faces are turned toward a bright and prosperous future," he continues.

"How can we help, each of us in this period of reconstruction? One way is to talk and act as optimists. For the chief thing needed is confidence. The profiteer has no place among us now. Go after him wherever you find him! He is the who plays into the hands of the bolshevik. He is the who provides a basis for the I.W.W."

"Do not try to sustain prices for the sake of a large profit. That prolongs the agony. That prevents the return of confidence. It is better far to lose something for a month or two than to prolong the hesitation for six or eight months or a year. Business now faces an opportunity for a sacrifice, temporarily, of personal profits that the greater gain may come when the buying movement starts. Business can aid the buying movement, can stimulate it, can bring it nearer by letting the public know it will be met halfway."

"There is no doubt, humanly speaking, that prosperity lies ahead for America, but there is yet an unsolved doubt as to who will use America will make of her prosperity. Do we think of our sister nations as 20 years ago a trust magnate thought of the concerns whose business he would like to grasp? We have outgrown that in our domestic commerce. It is more liberal today in the minds of the business men than on the statute books, but when we get beyond the three, advanced in our thoughts, we are at home? Can we carry the law of American law where the law of America does not prevail? If we do not, we may become fat and rich and possibly win the contempt of the world in so doing."

Commenting in the same issue on Secretary Redfield's statement, William R. Jones, the New York financier, predicts that immediately following the signing of the peace treaty the country will enter on one of the greatest periods of investment activities in the history of American business.

"Ample testimony to this effect," he declares, "is afforded by the sharp upward trend of security values since it became apparent that a peace pact could not long be delayed. Yesterday of trading in March, for instance, exceeded that of any previous month since the United States entered the war on April 6, 1917."

"The United States is emerging from the war stronger than ever, industrially and financially. In 1914 we were indebted to Europe to the extent of more than $5,000,000,000. Today Europe owes us an amount in excess of $10,000,000,000."

"The United States has more wealth than it ever possessed before and as the world owes it such an enormous trade balance, no difficulty should be encountered in maintaining the world leadership role. In fact the United States is the only source of large-scale supply for most of the world's necessities. This applies to machinery and railway equipment as well as to grain, meat and other foodstuffs."

"Moreover, the April 1 crop report just published broke all previous records, pointing to the prospect of the largest crop in the history of America. As farmers are guaranteed $2.25 a bushel for wheat and as food animals are bringing enormous prices, indications are that the west will have more money for investment purposes than ever before."

BELGIAN WAR VETERANS PARADE FOR LOAN

52,000 SEATS FOR Y. D. PARADE

BOSTON, April 18.—Herbert Parker, who has charge of the grandstands for the parade of the 26th Division here on April 25, announced last night that the stands would have a capacity of 52,000 instead of 75,000 as previously announced. Of these seats 2000 will be given to Civil war veterans, 1200 to the first naval district headquarters, the northeastern department headquarters and Camp Devens headquarters, and one thousand each to the governors of the New England states. The remainder will be distributed to relatives of soldiers.

The Right Laxative For The Little Ones

The natural condition of a child is to be happy and carefree. When the girl mopes and is indifferent to school and study, or the boy is sullen and refuses to go out and play, the child needs a laxative to empty the bowels and stir up the liver.

But something should be given that will produce the result in as simple and natural a way as possible. Harsh cathartics and physics are neither necessary nor desirable.

Many mothers have found that the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr.

Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin produces a free movement of the bowels without gripping. A very little is required, and it is pleasant to take. A few hours after its use the child will be its happy self again.

It is an excellent remedy for the mother herself, and for the other members of the family, in obstinate or occasional constipation, for the relief of headaches, as an aid in colds and fevers, minor skin eruptions and all disorders where the basis of the trouble is constipation.

The druggist will refund the money you pay for Syrup Pepsin if it fails to do as promised.

PRICE AS ALWAYS

In spite of greatly increased laboratory costs due to the war, by sacrificing profits and absorbing war taxes we have maintained the price at which this family laxative has been sold by druggists for the past 6 years. Two sizes—50c and $1.00.

TO WIDEN HALL AND AIKEN STREETS

Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy gave hearings on several petitions having to do with streets and sewers last evening. The most important hearing that of members of the Franco-American club that Hall and Aiken streets be widened at their junction. More than 50 members of the organization appeared at the hearing and Representative Henry Achin was spokesman for the petitioners. He said that the bad corner there was due to the lack of city planning. He could see only two ways to improve the situation, one, the cutting away of a piece of the brick wall around the property of the Lawrence Mfg. Co. and the other, cutting off a piece of the block built by a Mr. Harrie. He had found out that the wall of the Lawrence Co. protects considerable machinery and lumber and, therefore, the alternative would be to cut away part of the block.

Frank M. Andrews of Methuen, one of the owners of the block in question, said that he would be glad at any time

Quarter Century Ago

Patriots Day

Patriots day was a new holiday in 1919 and there was a great pilgrimage to Concord and Lexington. The bicycle was then in vogue and thousands of youths went from towns and cities within a radius of forty miles to view the scene of the battle. The mills of Lowell did not close in observance of the day and therefore the labor unions protested loudly. In 1911, on Patriots Day, April 19, the 10th anniversary of the skirmish in Baltimore was observed here with a great parade, with 6000 men in line, followed by a banquet. The guest of honor was General Jones of Binghamton, New York, the commander of the Old Sixth. He had been blind for twenty years and at the banquet he exclaimed: "Oh, God, if I could see only for a few moments that I might gaze again into the faces of my old comrades, how I would rejoice tonight."

Lowell in 1775

In the old Sun I find a very interesting article by George O'Dwyer who since his boyhood has shown an aptitude for historic research. It is entitled "Lowell in 1775" and is as follows:

"How did Lowell look at the time of the battle of Lexington and Concord?"

"The great anniversary of this memorable battle which will be celebrated on such a grand scale at Concord and Lexington tomorrow, portrays to us the patriotism of our forefathers when they bravely asserted their rights, one hundred and nineteen years ago. Lowell at that time was the home of a few settlers who, hearing of the great advantages this site afforded in the way of farming and fishing, had built dwellings here after obtaining the consent of the mother town, Chelmsford."

"The principal dwelling places of the first settlers were at Pawtucket falls, Centerville, and Belvidere heights and on the few roads which were laid out over what is now the city. The others were straggling, some being in the center of the city or out in the suburban parts. The wants of the people were looked after by traders, dealing in English and West India goods, who had their respective stores at Pawtucket bridge, buying, selling and exchanging their products with the settlers at Draught.

There was also one individual who kept a store on the old turnpike road, half a mile east of the meeting house, who probably did a fair business looking after the foot-sore and dry-mouthed traveler, by refreshing him with a glass of good old Medford rum or fine New England apple cider."

"There were a few grist and powder mills along the Concord towards Billerica, which ground the corn and grain, and made the powder for the settlers, the sudden demand for powder at that time being large, owing mainly to the threatening attitude of the British."

"The news of the British attitude towards the colonies and the suspicious movement of some British troops having reached the ears of the patriots in this section, the town of Chelmsford agreed to equip 52 minute men including officers, who were to be ready at a minute's notice. They were under the capable command of Capt. John Ford, a resident, who did good fighting with his men, in the first battles of the Revolution."

"It was the morning of the nineteenth of April, 1775. The peaceful little town of Chelmsford had just awoke with the rising sun and the farmers were beginning their day's work with hopeful hearts; some probably thinking of the impending war with England, others the outcome of their day's labor, their trusty flintlocks in order for daily exercise on the green—everybody unconscious of the bloody battle which was then being fought twenty miles away."

"How little did these patriots think of the magnitude of that fight which would change entirely the standing of this country with England?"

"But the cause of America had been declared! Paul Revere had carried out his midnight vigil."

"The alarm bells were ringing, messengers on fleet footed steeds were carrying the news from town to town in a wide radius and each town notified was to send the alarm on outward and thus it went."

"It is still morning; a horse and its rider were seen speeding—flying along the turnpike roads towards Chelmsford meeting house. His horses though fresh is covered with foam, but he dashed by with renewed speed towards the field adjoining a farmhouse where a man was at work plowing.

"He shouted to the man, nearly out of breath: 'To arms! To arms! Lexington and Concord are taken! The British are moving! On to Boston!'"

"Then he sped on towards the main settlement warning the farmers along the route, repeating his cry and creating general consternation."

"At last Chelmsford was reached. Dashing through the streets of the town, he shouted his warning as he went, stopping only to refresh his horse and then dashing onward to the settlers of other towns."

"The startled and surprised inhabitants of Chelmsford were overcome with astonishment and dismay. They looked at each other with sad countenance. But there was no time for these feelings to hold sway."

"The minute men, warned by the notes of the town bell, hurried to Chelmsford green from all parts and under Captain Ford, quickly formed and started on the road for Concord and Boston. They arrived at Concord after continuous marching in time to participate in the close of the fight."

"The news of the fight at Lexington and Concord reached Draught (Pawtucketville) late in the afternoon of the nineteenth. As soon as the information was received the old meeting house bell was rung, the minute men in two companies under Captains Peter Coburn and Stephen Russell were quickly formed and everywhere there was general bustle and excitement. The young men of the town fond of adventure and excitement looked around and eagerly joined the two little companies of patriots. They arrived at Boston the next day after their long tramp and were assigned quarters by the authorities."

"Thus Chelmsford, Draught, Billerica and Tewksbury had been aroused. They had responded quickly, giving their best men for the cause, leaving their families and their homes. They had shown their patriotism by the response to a sudden call to arms."

"The glorious battle for liberty had been begun. The patriotism of the people had shown itself in the first encounter. The minute men had done their full duty in this first battle for independence."

CHURCHES OBSERVE

GOOD FRIDAY

The Catholic churches of the city observed Good Friday today with customary services. The mass of the prescientific was celebrated this morning and at 3 o'clock this afternoon stations of the cross were held. This evening the tenebrae will be sung in many of the churches and the usual sermon on "The Passion" given. Tomorrow will be Holy Saturday and one mass will be celebrated after which holy water will be blessed. Tomorrow will be a day of abstinence for Catholics up to noon.

People Constipated and Don't Know It!

It seems odd, but it is true, that you may be constipated and not know it. You can see why it is. Take a glass and pour in water until full. If you keep on pouring in water after the glass is full, it will run over, but the glass stays full. Just so with your bowels; they get full of waste matter, and then they pass off or expel from the body only about the same amount that goes into it in the form of food. So you may have a movement of the bowels every day and yet there will remain waste matter that ought to be removed.

Give your bowels a gentle but thorough cleaning out and you'll feel great. A fine prescription for this is put up and sold under the name of Dr. True's Elixir. Doctors and druggists use it in their own families. Costs but little and brings health to men, women and children. Sweet and pleasant tasting. Works gently. Children like it. Remember the name, Dr. True's Elixir—Adv.

This Skin Peeler All the Rage in Society

There is a growing tendency among women of culture and fashion to pay more attention to hygienic means of preserving their charms. The advent of mercurized wax doubtless has been largely responsible for this. This remarkable substance produces complexion so natural in appearance, so magnificently beautiful, artificial complexions are no longer desired. Instead of "doctoring" an offensive skin, the skin is peeled off. The wax peels the skin so gradually in such fine particles, no discomfort is experienced. The fresher, younger skin beneath, wholly in evidence within a week or two, is like white, satiny soft and smooth. It's not a patched-over complexion, but a brand new one. That's why mercurized wax has become such a rage among society folk. The wax is put on nights like cold cream and washed off mornings. All druggists have it; one ounce will do—Adv.

EASTER MUSIC IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCHES

Peace with its more than usual significance this Easter will find happy and joyful interpretation in the musical programs of the local Catholic churches on Sunday morning. Those in charge of the various choirs have arranged musical offerings that will faithfully express the cheer and thanksgiving that are to dominate this year's observance of the great ecclesiastical holiday. The most elaborate programs, of course, will be given in connection with the high mass in each parish and in many of the churches there will also be special programs for the evening vespers services.

Programs to be carried out in the various churches are as follows:

Hail, New Englanders!

You have done your duty and something more.
You have done your duty, and you have done it with a spirit which gave it distinction and glory. And now we are to gather the fruits. We are ready to make good in the establishment of peace upon the permanent foundation of right and of justice.

The New Task

is not new. It is an old one unfinished. It is the problem of financing the war. When you New Englanders set your faces in any direction you keep them in that direction until the task is finished.

We must pay our bills and maintain our Army until the Peace for which we fought is won

Use Poslam For Eczema, Itch No More

Every eczema sufferer should know how greatly Poslam is able to soothe this stubborn trouble, how quickly it brings relief, stops itching, cools, soothes and comforts. To spread Poslam over an angry affected surface is to feel that here, in reality, is just the healing influence the skin demands. Treatment is usually surprisingly short and improvement noticed every day. Poslam is harmless. Use it for pimples, rashes and all eruptions of the skin.

LOWELL WOMAN

BRUTALLY ASSAULTED

Mrs. Rose Cole, who up to a short time ago resided in this city, but who recently moved to Haverhill, was the victim of a brutal assault at her home, 52 Mt. Washington avenue, Haverhill, yesterday afternoon and as a result she is now at the General S. H. Gale hospital in Haverhill, and her condition is very serious. She claims to know her assailant. She gave the police a name, but they have not found him.

According to the story related to the Haverhill police, Mrs. Cole claims that while she was alone in her house there was a knock at the door and when she opened it the man tried to enter, but she refused to admit him. She alleges that he pushed past her and closing the door, dragged her into a room nearby. She alleges that the man threw her across a bed, drew a knife and began slashing her across the face. Her arms were cut when she endeavored to protect herself.

After using the knife, Mrs. Cole told the police, her alleged assailant has-tioned from the house and ran up Mt. Washington ave. and was then lost sight of.

Patrolman Rollins was summoned and a general alarm was sent out by the police signal system for the arrest of the man, but no trace of the alleged assailant had been found last night. City Physician H. M. Crittenden was called to dress the wounds of Mrs. Cole, and he ordered her removal to the hospital, where 29 stitches were taken to close the ragged wounds on the left side of her face. Nine stitches were taken in the gashes on her left arm and two were necessary to close a wound on her right arm.

It is claimed that Mrs. Cole's husband is in the service, having been drafted from Lowell.

BIG BOUT AT C.A.A. "CAV" BACK FROM WAR
TOMORROW AFTERNOON

The holiday card arranged by the directors of the Crescent A.A. is one of the best ever announced for a local boxing club. Two of the leading men of their class in the business, Benny Valger, the "French flag," and Phinney Boyle, the "Lowell whirlwind," are to appear in the main bout of 12 rounds (tomorrow afternoon) between clubs and several other boxing emporiums tried to "hook up" these two men, but the local officials "beat them out." Boyle and Valger are much alike in their fighting. Both are game, willing, aggressive men, stubborn when pushed and can adapt themselves to any style of battling. They are both wonderfully clever and exceptionally hard hitters for men of their weight. Valger has secured the ladder with remarkable rapidity, and his recent victory over Ralph Brady at Boston added another notable achievement to an already long list. His manager is now negotiating for a title bout with Johnny Kilbane. Boyle, who has won 27 bouts, has a record of 27 wins, including two key wins. Both men are in the pink of condition and ready for a great battle. There will be three other bouts.

LAST LOCAL POLO GAME
HERE TONIGHT

Lowell and Providence will meet at the Crescent rink tonight in the final polo game of the season, and as Lowell and Salem are neck and neck for the pennant, which will not be settled until tomorrow's game, a record crowd is expected to turn out to witness the important battle. Lowell must win to retain in the hunt for the flag. A defeat will eliminate the Harkins crew. The players are all "hot up" over the race, and a lively battle is in prospect. Salem jumped into the lead by winning last night, and a Lowell victory means that the Champs will go to Salem tomorrow afternoon with a lead of half a game. Should Lowell win tonight and tomorrow afternoon, the pennant will again come Lowell's way, should they win tonight and lose tomorrow afternoon. Salem would again be on top with the games on Saturday night determining the championship. Lowell plays at Worcester Saturday night, while Salem will go to Providence for the second holiday game.

SALEM BREAKS
TIE FOR LEAD

SALEM, April 18.—Salem broke the tie in the American polo league race last night by defeating Providence, 15 to 7. Salem now leads Lowell by one-half a game. The feature of last night's game was the brilliant playing of Alexander, Williams and Jones for the home team, the former being the big goal getter, scoring seven of Salem's 15 goals. Red Williams, Thompson and Doherty played well for Providence. The summary: Goals, Alexander 7, K. Williams 5, Jean 2, R. Williams 1, Thompson 3, Bishes, Alexander 17, R. Williams 7, Stone, Maxwell 42, Purcell 34.

RICHMOND, Va., April 18.—The Boston Red Sox had another and their last workout here yesterday before starting north, when they clobbered through nine innings against the Richmond Medical school team, winning 19 to 4. Barrow sent George Dumont through the entire game and the former senator showed excellent stuff when he felt so disposed. The whole team hit the ball hard, both getting two singles and another homer over the fence in right field. Gilhooly played in the outfield and showed tremendous speed.

The Erie A.C. is looking for games with 13 or 14-year-old teams. Send all communications to E. Harrington, 218 Adams street.

The Pawtucketville Juniors would like to arrange a game with the Congress A.A. for Monday, April 28. Other games wanted. Send challenges through this paper.

GOLF RECORD

CHICAGO, April 18.—Recent claim of a Philadelphia golfer to have broken all known American records by playing 144 holes in one day today brought a statement from a local statistician that the eastern record had not come up to one made here 10 years ago.

George H. Litton and Andrew McCann, of the Roxbury Country club, according to the statistician, started play at 4:30 a. m. and stopped at 7:30 p. m., making 144 holes.

According to the statistician, the world's championship is held by H. B. Lumsden who in June, 1910, played 216 holes over the Aberdeen golf course in Scotland, starting at 2:30 a. m. and finishing at 9 p. m. It is estimated he walked more than 40 miles.

TRIANGLE A.A. TO REOPEN APRIL 29

The Triangle Athletic association will reopen on Tuesday evening, April 29, at the Plymouth with a well arranged boxing program. For the main attraction Larry Hanson and Pete Hartley, both prominent lightweights, will meet. Hanson and Hartley are two of the most noted Danish boxers in this country, and are out to settle the claim of supremacy. They are well known in this vicinity and are noted for their aggressiveness. For the semi-final number Ruddy Dohan of Lawrence and Eddie Barrell of Quincy will appear. There will be two preliminaries and an extra try-out number by local boys, Dave Dasher, of Cambridge, the well known old time boxer, will be master of ceremonies. Jimmy Mahan is the matchmaker.

The Sun prints the news of the world when it is news and only such news as is fit to print. It is a clean family newspaper.

POLISH TROOPS "LOST"
IN GERMANY

CORLENZ, Thursday, April 17.—(By the Associated Press)—The first train of Polish troops being taken to Poland became "lost" soon after entering occupied districts of Germany. The train pulled into Treves late yesterday and because of the misunderstanding of orders on the part of German railroad men, it was sent to Cologne instead of to Corlenz.

Early today when the soldiers looked from their car windows and discovered they were in Cologne, there was some excitement on board the train, but allied officers soon straightened out the misunderstanding and the train was brought to this city. When the Poles got here and crossed the Rhine their excitement had disappeared and officers on duty at the station in this city reported that the discipline on board the train was excellent.

As a result of the mixup the second train of Polish troops arrived here ahead of the first train and started on its journey across Germany, taking the place of the train which had been misdirected.

LAWRENCE WANTS BASEBALL

LAWRENCE, April 18.—At a special meeting of the city council here yesterday it was voted to apply for the introduction of a bill in the legislature which will give permission to the city to rent O'Sullivan Park here to private or semi-private interest for athletic events so that admission fees may be charged.

The park is now the property of the city and is the only place suitable here for such events as high school and league baseball. Without the permission of the legislature, it is said, no athletic events could be held there for which admission could be charged.

SIX WANT TO BE MEXICAN PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Six candidates are in the field for the presidency of Mexico at this election in July, 1920, despite President Carranza's request that politics be put aside for the present, according to advice from Mexico City. Carranza is not eligible to re-election under the constitution, but two members of his cabinet plan to run.

The candidates are General Alvaro Obregon, General Pablo Gonzalez, General Salvador Alvarado, Luis Cabrera, Felix Palavicini and Aguirre Berlanga.

Obregon is the only officer who has defeated Villa. He has retired from the army and devoted himself to agriculture in the state of Sonora.

NEW TIRE SHOP IN MARKET STREET

One of the latest tire shops to open in Lowell is the Fulton Tire shop, Market street. This shop is one of the chain of Fulton Tire shops with the main office in Boston. The Lowell branch is under the able management of Emil Herz, who has been associated with this line of business for a long period. The many advantages of trading with the Fulton Tire shop are clearly set forth in their advertisement in today's issue of The Sun. The many items and prices will be of interest to every auto owner.

STANLEY'S ON-THE-MERRIMACK

It looks like a big season at Stanley's on-the-Merrimack and that pretty little place of amusement so cosily situated on the banks of the Merrimack will have all kinds of attractions to offer in the line of amusements. Larry Mullin, of Lowell, the general manager, is leaving no stone unturned in the refitting of the place and he has already made vast improvements there, including the putting in of a new dance hall and a new soda fountain. The building has been repaired and everything outside and in is as fresh as a daisy. The season's features will include canoeing and Mr. Mullin intends to build an up-to-date roller coaster. He has other plans in view, too, for the extension and completion of his amusement place and they will be described in detail later on. Pop concerts every Wednesday evening will be another stellar attraction.

DYER AND PHILLIPS

The motorcycle establishment in Moody street and the local agency for the Harley-Davidson motorcycle has passed from Joseph Parmentier to Dyer and Phillips as the result of recent negotiations. The new owners are by no means strangers in Lowell. Both have just returned from overseas service, having served in the "Y" Division. The new proprietors start in business with the well wishes of their many friends.

MUTINOUS CONDITIONS
PREVAIL IN EGYPT

PARIS, Thursday, April 17.—(Havas)—Newspapers here feature reports as to the gravity of the Egyptian situation, saying there is great concern among British authorities over the nationalist movement. Despatches state that mutinous conditions prevail at Cairo, Alexandria and Port Said, and several mysterious deaths in connection with the disorders have occurred.

The insurgent leaders demand that European officials resign, that British citizens leave the country and that a Musselman empire be founded with a Caliph at Cairo.

DERBY STORE HAS LAMPS AS GIFTS

With the holy festival of Easter there is to a considerable extent associated the idea of extending one's impulse to do a kindness by making an Easter gift. Most people associate the efficiency of making presents with the idea of giving something that will perpetually remind the possessor of the gift of the kindness which prompted its being given.

To procure a gift attaining this, there are probably few things more appreciated or welcomed more cordially as an Easter gift than some kind of an electric lamp. The L. A. Derby & Company, electrical contractors and dealers in electric goods are making a fine display of electric lamps and novelties suitable for Easter gifts in the street windows of their place of business at 51 Middle Street. Inside the store, too, on attractively arranged display stands, there are as many types of lamps and at as many prices as the range of the community pocket-book demands.

There is, for instance, the cheap electric light so constructed that it makes an ideal Easter gift for the man who often shaves after dark. It will be remembered he grumbled many times that he could not bring his mirror close enough to the light in his room and he could not move the stationary electric light. But the cheap light removes his objections for it is made so that it easily and quickly can be clamped onto any kind of a projection near the mirror and at any angle. This cheap lamp is also splendidly adapted for persons who wish to bring the source of light as close to their reading as possible. It is sold at a moderate price and shows in its appearance, its beautiful and artistic workmanship.

This one novelty is but one of many such things on sale at the Derby store and the perplexed Easter shopper would certainly go farther and fare much worse in neglecting to make the Easter gift something electrical.

STANDARD BOTTLING CO. OWNS SPRING

Undoubtedly many of the people in this city are unfamiliar with the famous "Mt. Pleasant Spring Water." This water has a mineral substance of 2.5% and is exceeded in purity only by the famous Poland Spring Water which is less than 2% mineral substance.

The "Mt. Pleasant Spring" is one of the largest and best known natural springs in the country and is situated on Westford and Steadman streets near the Chelmsford line. At no time in history has this spring been known to be dry. The free flow of it is truly remarkable, over 1200 gallons per hour, due perhaps to the fact that it is surrounded on all sides by a heavy pine timber which has been allowed to remain in its natural state so as to protect the marvelous spring.

This probably is the reason of the wonderful purity of its water.

The Standard Bottling company now owns and operates the spring, and distributes the water to local users in addition to using it in their beverages. Those who use the "Mt. Pleasant Spring Water" can testify as to the purity and substance of it.

EASTERN VULCANIZING CO. FULL OF ORDERS

Due to its enterprise in advertising in The Sun, coupled with the excellent and conscientious tire repair work being done at its place of business, 202 Church Street, the Eastern Vulcanizing company, R. Rodriguez proprietor, announces this week that it has been necessary to add another workman to his force and this will result in the tire repair service being even more prompt than what is the case now.

The telephone number of this concern is 1955-M and under a new facility offered patrons of the Eastern Vulcanizing company, arrangements can now be made so that the auto of the company will call at homes and business places for tires to be repaired. In order not to slow up or interfere with the principal part of the company's work, its tire repair service, patrons should leave in mind that work can only be called for and delivered the first thing in the morning and after 5 p. m. at night. In many instances, by the introduction of this new system, it will be possible to call for a set of tires or one tire, in the morning, repair it and have it returned at night which of course makes an exceedingly convenient service.

There are hardly any tires, Manager Rodriguez announces, but that when damaged, even if it seems to have been considerably damaged, can be fixed at a comparatively inexpensive cost and at the same time, obtain two or three thousand more miles of wear. With the delivery, telephone and other service at this place, and the moderate prices charged, it is no wonder that the Eastern concern has had to add to its working power.

DUFRESNE'S AD HAS BROUGHT BUSINESS

W. H. Dufresne and his crew of three skilled painters, as the result of a moderate priced ad on this page published for the past three or four weeks, is having his hands full with the great rush of spring business in the way of repainting motor cars. Dufresne's place of business is at 332 Broadway, rear, and he has been so busy painting autos that he hasn't had time to paint any kind of a sign to put out front and show where he is doing business. But 332 is the number on Broadway and if you go down the alley you will find Dufresne and his crew literally "up to their necks" putting beauty on motor cars.

In spite of the large amount of work pouring in on him, Dufresne wishes to announce that even the costliest and best jobs of motor car painting he does, can be delivered back to the owner a week after being received at the shop. In case of a small amount of work being necessary on a car, it can be done at the Dufresne shop so as to be turned back to the owner in two days or so. Dufresne's prices are exceedingly moderate. It is possible to give a silver, for instance a "regular" coat of paint at an expense of about $30 which in these days of high cost paint and labor as well is a very moderate price. One of the great qualities and best advertisements for the Dufresne shop is the fact that when he pronounces a car finished and is ready for it to leave his shop, in the majority of cases it looks better than when it left the original factory, so far as the painting part of it is concerned.

TURCOTTE ADDS TO HIS CRACKER FAMILY

The famous Bratt Cracker bakery, a Lowell institution—and we call it a Lowell institution because it has been baking crackers 58 years—will soon have a family of crackers for, since the new proprietor, O. Turcotte took charge of the business four years ago, in addition to the staple product of the factory, the well known Bratt soda cracker, he has originated a new kind of a cracker called the "butter cracker." This is a small, round, neat looking cracker very suitable for family use in soups and chowders. This factory, located in Whiting Street, also makes oyster crackers.

In a short time Mr. Turcotte says he intends to make a new saltine cracker and place it on the market. The Bratt bakery crackers are sold at practically every store and market in Lowell and the Lowell retailers generally he found pushing this line of goods from the fact that they are recognized to be a better grade of article than what is sold by the cracker trust. Two generations of Mr. Turcotte's family have worked at the Bratt bakery. Uncle Peter Vian, one of the master bakers, worked at this factory 50 years. Mr. Turcotte started when he was a boy and he has worked as baker in the factory 25 years. The demand for the goods turned out by this factory has grown to such an extent that Mr. Turcotte announces he is to put on one more road salesman with a truck to cover new territory between here and Reading. The factory is working at top speed, five skilled bakers being necessary and the work requiring 50 barrels of flour per week. It ought to be a matter of pride with the Lowell housewives to demand of their grocer, "made-in-Lowell" crackers.

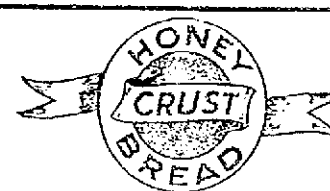

AIN'T NATURE WONDERFUL

By Gene Ahern.

When spring shuffles up the deck and deals out the first hand of ace days, there are two plays the male species stack up the chips to open the game with. Either crawling out of the "heavies" or jumping into a suit of jumpers to overhaul the gas gonda. Either case usually ends up with a high and low temperature. When the balmy air works into the auto bug's mechanism, he backfires to the bus coop to manœuvre the mechanism of the chugger. Like munching bleacher berries, he doesn't know when to call it a halt. With the spring hop-pole arms in his dome, he transfers it to the engine and cylinder heads, with wrists, wrenches, elbows, bruised digits, grease in the gums, hard words and so it goes. Overhauled in the home garage, and hauled over to the repair shop.

THE "FEMALE BULLY SUNDAY" SAYS "GOD LOVES THE OUTCASTS"

Easter-tide, says this woman preacher, is the total wave of God. It shall sweep away the flimsy wooden bulwarks built by men. Pray for the flood to come, for the fire to come! Jesus is risen; awake and press on to perfection!

The true Easter is not the time for new coats of many colors, hats that are flags of pride, dresses that jingle of gold and outshine the splendors of Babylon.

It is not the time for oratory, for eloquent words that would shock

God as to wooden stakes of earthly creed—
Easter is not the time for higher criticism or lower criticism, for picnic or card-party, for signing new-rent contracts, or looking for a Messiah who will come as a king—

Go out among the outcasts and the persecuted and find your Easter there.
The outcasts' hearts are tender and open. They are easy to reach with the spirit of God for the world has hurt them and they know what it is.

Night after night, after preaching to crowds in our gospel tent, I and my followers go down to the dance halls and dives and brothels, and there find people who are bruised and sore with persecution, whose hearts are broken that the spirit may enter.

Will you sit idly in your cushioned pew this Easter day and let the outcasts go past the door? There are people outside your church who are dragged into hell for want of your friendly hand and loving word!

Put your arms around the women of the underworld and tell them their mothers are waiting; their God is waiting! Sit at the piano in the brothel and sing them songs of Jesus! Tell them of the outcasts that stood by our Lord in His suffering, and greeted Him on His Day of Resurrection!

Jesus did not bother with people of fashion and position. He does not bother with them today. He goes among the publicans and sinners. Jesus was an outcast and His followers are outcasts.

Cry His word in the palace, and you are scorned and driven forth. Cry His word in the brothel, and they crowd around you weeping.

The great mind and clear eye of Almighty God sees these poor sinners as they are, and sees the rich and respectable as they are. The glowing flame of revival has burned always among the outcasts. Blessed are they who are persecuted—their persecution makes them blessed.

God speaks to the outcasts; through them He redeems the world. Go forth to the places of vice, of suffering and sorrow, and learn how to make Easter a day of resurrection from the dead!

Miss Hard's Shorthand School

Hildreth Building
MRS. BLANCHE HARD MURPHY, Principal
Do you realize that the government is reaching out into every department of life for more tax upon the public?
Are you aware that the searching after taxes has caused an enormous enlargement of the government departments?
If you are a stenographer YOU can get a position in some department of the United States. Many have risen from such beginnings to a high place and large salary.
Miss Hard's Shorthand School is sitting, and has tried successfully for such work.
She is the leading exponent of the Pitman shorthand in this region. A court reporter herself, she educates others for that work.
Learn shorthand in this school, and you will be able to read your notes.

DR. PARRA IS A PAINLESS DENTIST

There is only one thing worse than a toothache and that is a painful extraction. But when your teeth are aching if you visit Parra, the painless dentist, at 219 Central street, your pain will disappear instantly. Dr. Parra is a product of European universities and he has a secret of his own for painless extractions. He also does teeth filling and bridge work and all his work is guaranteed.

ALSACE-LORRAINE CO. CLEANS AND DYES

Alsace-Lorraine in Europe is what France was fighting for, but Alsace and Lorraine in Lowell is the home of clothes dyeing, cleaning, pressing and repairing and that place is located at 441 Moody street. It is in charge of competent workmen who will give you 100 cents worth for every dollar spent. Alsace & Lorraine also make suits to order for ladies and gents and their work is the best ever. Their telephone number is 1358-W.

Y'CAN BORE SQUARE HOLES NOW

Maybe you've heard the carpenters kid the apprentices by sending them after the square hole. It's not a joke any more. Here is C. J. Schmidgall, who has invented the "mechanically impossible," a rotary drill that bores a square hole. Not only does it bore a square hole, but all the other holes that show at the left of the picture. He's got his absolute patents and ought to be on the way to a fortune.

CASH REGISTERS ARE PROFIT PROTECTORS

You ought to protect yourself, your employees and your business by equipping your establishment with a cash register, and if you buy one, be sure you get the right kind, a National.

C. D. A. Grasse, with an office at 422 Wyman's Exchange, carries a full line of Nationals and his prices are right. He has also a number of registers of the second hand type at good bargains. If you cannot go to his office, consult him by telephone. His number is 3513-W.

LITHUANIA'S LITERATURE

The new republic on the Baltic, Lithuania, has its distinct literature. The invention of printing in the sixteenth century gave rise to a purely Lithuanian literature, western Lithuania being particularly productive in this regard. Of the 59 Lithuanian books published from 1547 to 1701, 24 were designed for the Protestants of Prussian Lithuania, 8 for Calvinists, and 27 for the Roman Catholics of Lithuania. Prof. Volter is of the opinion that the dearth of information about the history of the Lithuanian language and literature can be ascribed to the fact that the remnants of this literature were destroyed about the 17th century. Many of these books have disappeared entirely; in fact, single copies of only a few of them are still extant. They were written and published exclusively by Lithuanians who had received their education in the University of Konigsberg or at the Academy of Vilnius.

JOSEPH D. DUBOIS SAILS FOR FRANCE

Joseph D. Dubois of 21 Gold street, a prominent agent for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., and a well known young man of this city, has been appointed a Knight of Columbus secretary for service overseas. He left for New York this morning and will sail for France within a few days.

Mr. Dubois has been connected with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. as an agent for the past six years during which time he made a host of friends. For a number of years he held the position of treasurer for the Notre Dame de Lourdes Credit union and at one time was district storekeeper for the New England Telephone Co.

Mr. Dubois has a thorough knowledge of the French language, which undoubtedly will be of great value to him in his K. of C. work "over there," and his many friends wish him good luck and Godspeed in his new field of endeavor.

schedule of demands of the workers to the postmaster-general, and several suggestions from the standpoint of the public. He declared the postmaster-general was impressed with the gravity of the situation. "The situation certainly does not look any worse," Mr. Peters said.

TELEPHONE GIRLS

MAKE STATEMENT

BOSTON, April 18.—A. B. Burlinson, postmaster-general, has proclaimed throughout the country that we have gone on strike without having submitted any demands to him, officially, or to the company. These are the facts: "On Oct. 30, 1918, a committee composed of Julia S. O'Connor, Mary E. June and Mary W. Mahoney, presented our new wage schedule to General Manager William A. Driver, New England Telephone & Telegraph Company; later, on Nov. 14, this schedule was returned to the committee by Mr. Driver, who denied any jurisdiction. "Thereupon the committee, on Nov. 20, submitted a copy of the same schedule to the Ryan board, after having received assurances it had jurisdiction. "After repeated, unsuccessful attempts by Miss Julia O'Connor, then a member of the Ryan board, to have this board take up this schedule, Miss O'Connor was finally, on Jan. 28, 1919, forced to resign from the Ryan board, as a protest against unfair tactics of this board in pigeon-holing our schedule."

"Thereafter, on March 24, a committee composed of Mary W. Mahoney, Mary E. June, Bridie Powers, Katherine McGovern, Mary Brody, Helena Smith and Helen Moran, waited upon Mr. Burlinson himself and presented to him personally another copy of this same wage scale. This copy, we were told, Mr. Burlinson himself had sent to the Ryan board. "So that already this wage schedule, which Mr. Burlinson persists in saying has not yet reached him officially, has been presented by us to the Ryan board, and has been presented by us to Mr. Burlinson himself. "Mr. Burlinson, and now also Mr. Tumulty, suggest that we go through all this process of being kicked from pillar to post for five months and a half all over again, with no promise of any different result after five or six months more of weak evasion and quibbling. "For the state committee, Julia O'Connor, Mary E. June, Mary W. Mahoney, Helena Smith, Bridie Powers, Katherine McGovern, Mary Brody, Helen Moran."

Foch Ready To Act

Sates learn the details of the treaty which they will be asked to sign. This will delay proceedings to some extent, it is believed, and it is not expected that the German delegation can go to Wilhelm, receive instructions and return to Paris before May 8.

No Discussion—May Ask Questions

According to plans formulated at the conference, the German delegates will be permitted to ask questions to elucidate obscure points, but nothing approaching a discussion of the terms will be permitted. Only President Wilson and the allied premiers will be present when the terms are presented to the Germans. It is expected the League of Nations will have the place of honor in the terms to be presented.

Japan to Present Claims Tomorrow

Japan will bring before the council of four on Saturday the subject of Kiao-Chau, the German fortress in the Far East, and it is expected that a decision will be announced soon.

"Eiger" Agrees to Feed Russia

Premier Clemenceau who refused on Wednesday to join in the conditional agreement to feed Russia through neutral nations has at last attached his name to the undertaking. Letters exchanged between the council of four and the committee in charge of sending supplies to the Russians indicate that conditions in Russia are critical.

Libau Seized by Hung

Libau has been seized by German and Baltic-German troops, according to advices received at Copenhagen. The latter's provisional government has been ousted and some of the ministers imprisoned. A British mission is at Libau and British warships are in the harbor and it may be that some action will be taken against the Germans.

Fishline in Munich

Telegraphic communication between Berlin and Munich has been severed and Bamberg, Bavaria, is also off from Berlin. German government and Bavarian soviet troops have been fighting at Munich for the past few days and it is believed that one party or the other cut the telegraph lines.

FOCH TO ACT IF GERMANS BALK

PARIS, Thursday, April 17. (Havas.)—Military experts under the direction of Marshal Foch, have been charged with the drafting of a report on what shall be done if Germany refuses to sign the treaty of peace. It is indicated that in such an event the allies will occupy more German territory, blockade German ports and discontinue the despatch of food supplies to Germany.

Strikers Hold Meeting

proving hourly and that 20 young women outside of the union are operating at the switchboard. He estimated that 20,000 calls are being handled daily, and arrangements have now been made to care for emergency calls day and night. These are calls which may come from the police and fire departments and hospitals, but calls going to these places have to take their chances of being answered. The switchboard was closed last night between the hours of 6 and 10 o'clock, but from the latter time until 7 o'clock this morning, limited service was given.

The 20 operators on duty at the building are being taken to and from their work in automobiles and mid-day meals are being served them in the building.

The Lowell Trades and Labor council went on record last night as being strongly behind the strikers and said that unless Lowell corporations and plants employing union labor refrain from allowing their employees to work at the telephone company as strike breakers the labor unions of the city will take prompt action against them. The action of the council was taken following a meeting at which a delegation of striking operators and electrical workers protested against such action on the part of Lowell concerns.

Pres. Frank Warnock of the council was empowered to visit George F. Motley, president of the Lowell Gas Light Co., which is said to have supplied girls to the telephone exchange this week and request that the girls be removed. Similar action will be taken against textile concerns who also have supplied girls, it is said. The protest made to the council last night was presented by William F. Sadler, for the male workers, and Marguerite Jennings, Gertrude Cullen, Mollie Hughes and Tessie Quinn for the operators.

Teachers as Strike Breakers?

A delegation from the striking operators called upon William L. Crowley, school committee man, this morning and said that school teachers of Lowell were working as operators at the local switchboard and protested against it. Richard Brahe, school committee chairman of the school committee, also heard of it, and immediately began an investigation. Mr. Crowley said that if the report proved true he should be in favor of requesting the resignations of such teachers after a hearing, and quoted section 21 of the school committee rules, which says:

"Teachers may for hire give instruction to pupils outside of school hours, provided that such instruction shall not interfere with their work in the public schools. Teachers may work for salary or wages during the summer vacation but except as herein provided shall do no other work during the school year, except by special permission of the committee."

BULLETIN

League of Nations

April 18, 1919.

How do those who object to "sending our troops to settle" or to put it simply to "help and do our part in all parts" how do they expect the U. S. A. to get? If, in any of these far-away parts of the world, our "yellow-citizens" are insulted, unjustly treated or killed?—will by any sane country the U. S. A. were to be deluded?

Without a League of Nations, the court to which to bring our complaints, we should properly act quickly and, urged by an excited and incensed public opinion, be sending our boys over there and taking the matter into our hands. Of course the U. S. A. could bar all intercourse with other nations, except at the personal risk and responsibility of those who selected to trade and travel outside the U. S. A. and America, leaving such to their fate; but this is not at all likely.

What we want is free communication—freedom for all nations, which means a court to which they can refer for justice. We all want freedom from the militaristic practice of taking the law into our own hands and the League of Nations is the only organization that can accomplish this, and relieve and free the world from this militaristic practice of rushing into war to prevent ill-treatment or offensive action.

Copies of the Constitution of the League of Nations, the Lodge-Lowell Debate, other League of Nations literature and buttons may be obtained at War Work Headquarters free of charge.

a. m. and arrives at Lowell at 10.15. The special train returns to Camp Devens, leaving Lowell at 11.15 p. m.

On arrival at Lowell, the U. S. Carriage Co. band will escort the visitors to the South common, where a welcome and the freedom of the city will be offered by the mayor.

Colonel Charles A. Stevens, adjutant, 24th Division, R. E. M., will respond. Soldiers, sailors and marines already in Lowell will also participate in this ceremony.

It is the wish of the people of Lowell that the day shall be spent exactly as our guests prefer. The American Red Cross will station its canteen at the South common in the morning to serve any who may desire refreshments. All men in uniform welcome.

The theatres are thrown open to you, dinner and supper provided for, at certain hotels and restaurants, and programs of entertainment are arranged by various organizations.

The accompanying ticket is for use at the theatres and restaurants.

The city has arranged for dinner and supper at the following places, where the ticket coupon will be accepted: Page's restaurant, Chin Lee Co., Yan Ho restaurant, The Canton restaurant, American House, Harrington Hotel, Richardson Hotel.

Open house and entertainment have been offered by the following:

Knights of Columbus
Open house all day.
Luncheon and entertainment, 5 to 6.

Band concert and Honey Ray Quartet in front of K. of C. rooms from 6 to 8.

Free sleeping quarters, special Easter breakfast, Associate unit, served by League of Catholic women.

EASTER

This Is Your Last Warning

The weather all this week has hurt the merchants of Lowell and made it hard for women to shop. Bear this in mind. The weather forecast says fair weather today. Women buyers will not find stocks depleted as would have been the case if weather had been good. Prices are slashed today. You have 6 hours more to buy the things that give a man or woman the "finishing touch."

Six hours more to buy an Easter gift to make some heart glad indeed.

WE CHOOSE YOUR CLOTHES WITH UTMOST CARE

You haven't the time nor the patience, nor can you afford to spend days, weeks and months selecting the fabrics, patterns, styles, linings, threads and other detailed items that make up your clothes. We do it for you. We must do it. Our entire energies and those of

are centered on the work of giving the men and young men of this community thoroughly well-made clothes at "real value" prices. And you'll notice the result of our careful study and sound judgment in the Spring suits and topcoats here assembled. Clothes of unquestioned dependability and nicety of fit; fabrics that have life; styles individual and new; smart patterns and color tones; quality in and out surpassed by no others.

Warren W. Fox, counsel for the town of Dracut, has been appointed chairman of the Victory loan drive for his town and he is now busy appointing members for his committee, the list of which will be made public later.

The Lowell Cadet band will give a concert at city hall tomorrow evening between 6 and 8 o'clock under doubtful if they will last more than half an hour. The idea is merely to give the people of the city a chance to see their own fighting men in some sort of unit formation, rather than in two and three as has been the case since the arrival of the men from overseas. Mayor Thompson will welcome them on behalf of the city and Col. Stevens will respond. A band concert will follow things up a little and that will be the entire extent of the proceedings. From that minute on the soldiers and sailors will do as they please and they will be cordially received wherever they call.

Practically every organization in the city will hold open house for the uniformed men. The Knights of Columbus, Y.M.C.A., Lowell War Camp Community Service, C.M.A.C., Eagles, Elks, Mathews, and various other clubs and fraternities will throw open their doors wide.

The Civic Celebration

The military phase of the celebration, of course, will be paramount, but there will be various other attractions and efforts to entertain the civilian population. All the theatres will present special holiday programs, an outdoor show will open at the Lakewood avenue grounds, the Crescent A.C. will stage bouts at 2.30 p. m., the main hall introducing Phineas Boyde of Lowell and Benny Valger, the various dance halls will have afternoon and evening programs.

The outdoor sporting season will also formally open with a grammar school track meet on the South common at 9 a. m., amateur ball games on the park and commons both morning and afternoon, and the opening of the high school baseball season at Spaulding park when Lowell high will line up against Manchester high at 3.15 p. m.

Tomorrow evening from 6 to 8 the Lowell Cadet band will give a concert in front of city hall under the auspices of the Lowell council of the Knights of Columbus.

Tomorrow will also have special religious significance for Catholics as it will be Holy Saturday and the customary services will be held.

Show Your Colors

It is hoped that there will not be a home or building in Lowell tomorrow without its showing of the national colors. Mayor Thompson has issued a proclamation calling upon everybody to decorate now that the city's heroes are returning and tomorrow it will be especially urgent for everybody to show his or her colors. The downtown section was fairly well adorned today and the theatres have done their part, but this House wants the residential streets aglow with red, white and blue.

Any information regarding the whereabouts of Raymond Hagan, formerly of Lowell, Mass., will kindly communicate with Matthew M. Black, 107 The West 44th street, New York City.

the auspices of the local council of the Knights of Columbus. The Honey Boy Four will entertain and Commissioner Marchand has agreed to erect a stand for the occasion.

The Old Sixth Regiment association will hold its annual reunion tomorrow in Memorial hall and it is expected that 25 or 30 of the members who are now living will be present with their relatives. The business meeting will open at 11 a. m. and following the election of officers, the members of S. F. Butler Women's Relief Corps will serve dinner at 1.30.

Mayor Thompson has been notified that John J. Mahoney has passed a non-competitive examination for the position of visitor in the charities department to succeed Jeremiah Daly, resigned. Mr. Mahoney has been a clerk in the department.

Lieut. Col. Charles A. Stevens of this city and of Brig. General Cole's staff was entertained last night by a score or more of his fellow members at the Yorick club. With him were a number of brother officers, who also sat in places of honor. Col. Stevens spoke interestingly of war incidents and his service in France. Others who said a word were: Brig. Gen. Sherburne, Lieut. Col. Perkins, Major Redmond and Captains Campbell, Simpkins, Tickner, Hodges and Cover, the last named being composition of visitor in the charities department to succeed Jeremiah Daly, resigned. Mr. Mahoney has been a clerk in the department.

Nothing Particularly New in Lowell Strike Situation—Twenty Non-

phone building and spoke to every person entering the building if he or she looked like a strike breaker. Miss Helen Moran, president of the operators' union, went to Boston this forenoon in response to a rush message from Miss Julia O'Connor, but the purpose was not divulged. Charles J. Leathers, local manager, said this morning that service is im-

Attempted Murder and Suicide in

Robert Chalker Shot Wife in Face and Turned Gun on Self—Husband and Wife Now at Hospital

Robert Chalker, 40, of Littleton, shot and seriously injured his wife, Bertha, 38, and afterwards shot himself through the head at his home in Littleton early this morning. Neighbors who heard the shots rushed to Chalker's home, where the shooting took place, and the two were rushed to the Lowell General hospital in an automobile.

The motive of the attempted murder is unknown to the police. Chalker was confined for several weeks in the asylum at Danvers, following an attack of influenza about six months ago, and it is thought that he suffered a relapse. The neighbors who heard the shots found both lying on the floor and a revolver with two empty chambers near by. Mrs. Chalker was shot through the left cheek, the bullet passing upwards through her head. Her husband had shot himself through the mouth. They were both rushed to the Lowell General hospital, and at the time of going to press the hospital authorities stated that although seriously injured, neither had been as yet placed on the dangerous list.

STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE

Ira Repecko, 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jan Repecko, 103 East Merrimack street, was struck and slightly injured by an automobile owned and driven by Frank Watson, of Boston, at 11 o'clock today. She was taken to St. John's hospital, where it was found that she had an abrasion of the right arm.

Extensive Celebration Here
For Soldiers of the 26th

Other Heroes Also To Be

One of the most extensive April 19th celebrations that Lowell has ever staged is that which municipal, military and fraternal authorities are planning to hold tomorrow in a twofold observance of Patriots day and the return of Lowell's fighting heroes.

The day will be given over almost wholly to the soldiers and sailors in Lowell with the boys of the 26th Division in special prominence. Every effort has been made to throw the city wide open to the returning soldiers, and from the minute they arrive here at 10.40 until the last train pulls out for Camp Devens in the evening, Lowell will be in the hands of her olive drab guests.

The celebration will be the first formal reception that the city has given in honor of the soldiers, and it is but a prelude to a later celebration when a larger number of the city's fighting men will have returned.

Just what Lowell will do for her soldier visitors tomorrow is contained in the following program of events, prepared by Mayor Perry D. Thompson, and a copy of which will be given to each soldier at Camp Devens tomorrow morning when he entrains for this city. The program and tickets for theatres and passes will be distributed by Col. Charles A. Stevens, who will be in charge of the celebration as far

THOMAS E. LENNON DEAD

Well Known Local Business Man Passed Away This Afternoon

Mr. Thomas E. Lennon, well known in business circles throughout Lowell, passed away at his home, 111 School street, at 1.15 o'clock this afternoon.
He had been ill but two weeks, suffering from a cold which developed into pneumonia despite the efforts of physicians to stave off that dread disease.
Mr. Lennon's death will be deeply deplored by a wide circle of friends by whom he was highly esteemed. He was in his 57th year and had been in vigorous health prior to his fatal illness.

THOMAS E. LENNON

He lived in Lowell his entire life.
Prior to 1890 he was employed in the water department of Lowell as an inspector. About 1890 he assumed the management of the business of his father, the late John Lennon, and like his father met with well deserved success in the old stand on Market street.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Ella E. Butler of Boston; a brother, Dr. John F. Lennon of Providence, R. I.; three sisters, Mrs. John H. Harrington, Mrs. Edward J. Welch and Miss Mary E. Lennon. Mr. Lennon was among those present at the bedside of deceased when he died.

Mr. Lennon spent most of his leisure hours with his family, but he was well known in several of the fraternities, particularly the Lowell lodge of Elks and was esteemed as a genial, loyal good-natured, big hearted gentleman.
By those associated with him in business as well as by his relatives his untimely death will be deeply mourned.
He was a patient sufferer and made a gallant fight against the illness that came upon him so suddenly. The news of his death has been a shock to his numerous friends not only in Lowell but in other New England cities where he was well known.

LEGISLATURE TAKES ACTION

Senate Urges Wilson To Give Driver Power To Settle the Strike

House Declares Strike En-dangerous Loan—Mayor Peters in Washington

BOSTON, April 18.—Governor Coolidge today asked Postmaster General Burleson whether he objected to the state taking over the operation of the telephone system during the disability of the government to furnish service in New England.

The senate adopted an order asking President Wilson through Secretary
Tamm to confer upon William R.
Driver, general manager of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co., authority to settle the strike of telephone operators and electrical workers which has caused a suspension virtually of telephone communication in five of the six New England states.

While the senate was thus engaged a resolution was introduced in the house declaring that the strike was not only a serious handicap to the transaction of business in the commonwealth but that it also was endangering the successful promotion of the Victory Liberty loan. The resolution called upon the postmaster general to bring about an equitable and speedy settlement, agreeable to all concerned with special consideration of the public interests or to submit the question to arbitration. Without discussion the resolution was referred to the committee on rules.

In his telegram to Postmaster General Burleson, Governor Coolidge said:
"For the duration of the disability of the United States government to furnish telephone service to the New England states, do you object to the commonwealth of Massachusetts taking over the operations until the federal government can again resume its conditions here imperatively demand resumption of telephone service."

The strike situation showed no marked change up to mid-day.

Peters at Washington
WASHINGTON, April 18.—Mayor Peters of Boston discussed the New En-land Telephone strike situation for nearly an hour today with Postmaster General Burleson, then went to the White House to see Secretary Tamm.

It was expected that Mr. Burleson would communicate with officials at Boston while Mr. Peters was at the executive mansion and that the second conference might result in some working basis on which the two sides could go together to effect a settlement.
Mr. Peters said he had presented the

have been laid before the peace conlavia will probably be brought to a decision soon, if efforts to be exerted by the Italian delegation bear fruit.

Decision Before April 21

This controversy, one of the most troublesome to be considered by the conference, has aroused public sentiment in Italy. When the Italian parliament meets on April 21, it is probable Premier Orlando will be asked for a report on the subject. Hence, he is said especially to desire a settlement before that date.

Conversations on the Adriatic problem have been going on in Paris for some time, but it is indicated that a settlement has not as yet been reached.

Present Terms Next Saturday

According to present plans the allied terms of peace may not be laid before the Germans before Saturday of next week and it may not be until the following Monday that the enemy delegation will be asked for a reply.

HOLD OPEN HOUSE

Soldiers Will Be Welcome at Community Service Club

The Young Women's Community Service club, with headquarters on the top floor of the Russell building, will hold open house all day tomorrow to aid in the entertainment of the thousands of soldiers who will spend the holiday in Lowell. An opportunity will be afforded for dancing in the afternoon and in the evening the usual dinner to orchestra music will be held.
Refreshments of sandwiches and coffee will be served throughout the day and a cordial invitation is extended to every service man to make this jolly club his rendezvous. The club rooms also will be open all day Sunday.

This community centre has grown tremendously since Mrs. Noble came from St. Paul to take charge and last week two additional rooms were artistically furnished and now form a part of the well appointed suite. Mrs. Noble said this morning that many girls who attend the club are out of work and that some means of alleviating this condition are now under discussion.

The club plans to support a summer camp for its girls this year if a suitable, secluded spot can be found.
Mrs. Noble will be very grateful to anyone who may let her know of such a camp which is not going to be used this year, and which may be leased for the season by the club.

STORM AGAIN DELAYS START OF FLIGHT

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., April 18.—A driving, off-shore snow storm which had blanketed the ground with a six inch mantle and was still in progress at mid-forenoon, effectively put a stop today to activities of the aviators waiting here for a favorable opportunity to attempt a transatlantic flight.

When Harry Hawker, Australian pilot of the Sopwith biplane team, and Captain Frederick P. Raynham, British driver of the Martinsyde, went to their hangars a half gale was blowing from the sea.

Hawker was restive under Raynham's readiness for the "jump off" after his successful trial flight yesterday, while each pilot was watching the movements of the other and his mechanics for indications of a second start.

Raynham, dissatisfied with the Martinsyde's radiator, installed a new one and hopes to make another trial flight before setting out for Ireland. He wishes also to test his machine's dual control.

Hawker has no secondary control on his Sopwith and will have to pilot his craft alone while Raynham can be relieved at intervals by Morgan, an experienced aviator.

WILSON WILL NOT ACT ON IRISH QUESTION

PARIS, April 18.—Among the many conferences held by President Wilson yesterday was one with Frank P. Walsh of Kansas City, chairman of the delegation appointed by the recent congress of the Friends of Irish Freedom in the United States to urge the claims of Ireland to recognition by the peace conference.

While no official statement has been given out, it is reported in well informed quarters that President Wilson took the stand that the question of Ireland's claims had not been brought before the peace conference by anybody, and that as president of the United States he could not introduce such a question.

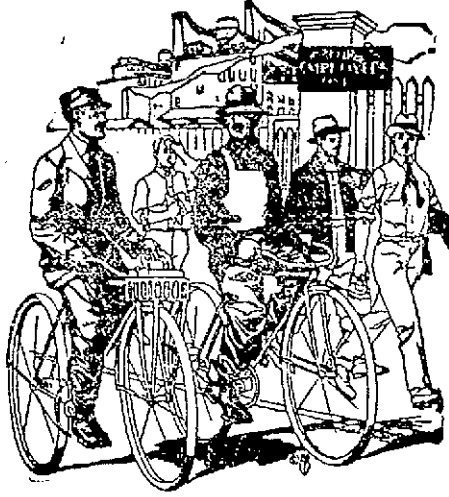

He made it plain that his views hadn't changed since the delegation called to see him in New York on the eve of his sailing for France, when he plainly intimated that it would be outside his province to bring up such a question before the peace conference.

Confere at Paris White House.

PARIS, April 18.—Frank P. Walsh, formerly chairman of the national war labor board, ex-Governor Edward J. Dunne of Illinois and Michael J. Ryan, of Philadelphia, the delegation sent by Irish societies in America to plead the cause of Ireland before the peace conference, had a long conference at the Paris "White House" today. The conference was an outgrowth of the interview Mr. Walsh had yesterday with President Wilson. The American delegation to the peace conference up to this time, has refused to receive Sean O'Connell and George C. Duffy, the delegates of the Irish provisional government here.

When Mr. Dunne and his associates reached Paris on April 11, they were met at the station by Messrs. O'Connell and Duffy, who told them that the great powers would refuse to hear them.

CASES HEARD IN POLICE COURT

That a man has no right to transport passengers for profit through a city or town which has an ordinance requiring jitneys to be licensed was the decision of Judge Bright in police court this morning. The statement was made in the case of Alvan H. Lakin, who was called on continuance on a complaint charging him with violating the city jitney ordinance by bringing passengers to Lowell in his automobile from North Chelmsford and Camp Devens.

Lakin admitted having brought passengers into the city, but said that he considered he had a right to bring people into Lowell as long as he did not carry any one from the city. He was ordered to pay a fine of $10, and appealed.

George Guyette of Westford was present on a drunkenness charge. The arresting officer reported that George had celebrated his arrival in Lowell last night by getting drunk and had attempted to "start something" in a downtown lunch car, with the result that he had been forcibly ejected. This did not meet with George's approval and he retaliated by putting his fist through the glass in the door. In order to give him an opportunity to make restitution the case was continued until Monday for sentence.

William J. McCarthy and Waino Anderson, two soldiers from Camp Devens, were charged with the larceny of $40 from Michael J. Feeney of this city. A continuance was granted until Wednesday.

Several offenders charged with

LOWELL'S DEATH RATE

Lowell's death rate for the present week is 13.06 against 16.37 and 17.82 for the previous two weeks. There were 27 deaths. Of these, seven were of children under five years of age and five of children under one. There were five deaths caused by infectious diseases, four by pneumonia and one by bronchitis. Diphtheria caused four deaths and tuberculosis four. The infectious diseases reported included: Diphtheria, 11; measles, 5; infantile paralysis, 1, and tuberculosis, 3.

DRACUT WILL STOP AUTO SPEEDING

A mass meeting of residents of Dracut will be held this evening in Grange hall, Centre village for the purpose of requesting the board of selectmen to take action relative to the establishment of a speed limit on the state highway in that portion of Dracut between Lowell and Lawrence.

This movement was started in the Kenwood section after numerous accidents had occurred. It is claimed that motorists go through the Dracut portion of the highway at break-neck speed and that the residents of the district are constantly in danger of being injured or killed. The accident, which occurred a few days ago and which resulted in the death of Mrs. Alexander Leblanc has caused great indignation and the residents of the district hope the board of selectmen will take drastic measures in order that this week's accident will not be duplicated. The meeting is called for 8 o'clock and it is hoped it will be largely attended.

SEC. DANIELS VIEWS MARINES

Has First Glimpse of "Soldiers of the Sea" on Duty Abroad

COBLENZ, Thursday, April 17.—(By the Associated Press)—From a parapet of the fortress Ehrenbreitstein, more than 400 feet above the junction of the Moselle and Rhine, Secretary Daniels today had his first glimpse of American marines on duty abroad. Patrol boats were darting back and forth among the barges and tugs on the river, the American flag streaming from the stern mast of each little boat.

At the point where the Moselle joins the Rhine stands a heroic statue of Emperor William I, said to be the largest of his kind in Germany. Beyond the statue there are great piles of lumber which aroused Secretary Daniels' curiosity as he looked down upon the activity of Coblenz, which has been increased two fold by the American occupation of the city. It was explained to him that the lumber was intended for new buildings to serve as recreation centers and barracks for the American army of occupation.

The secretary was taken through the underground passages of the fortress which were built partly by labor paid for by 20,000,000 francs which the Germans exacted from France. He was shown the accommodations of American artillerymen where but a few months ago thousands of German soldiers had been quartered. He also inspected the motorized equipment of the 17th Artillery regiment, which under Col. D. V. McCable, former cavalry officer and commander of Ehrenbreitstein, is said to be the first American artillery unit fully equipped with motors.

The secretary tomorrow will review the Second division which includes a brigade of marines. He will go to Wiesbaden on Saturday and will return

This Offer Positively Ends April 30

The reason why many people suffering from catarrhal troubles are not cured is because they cannot afford to receive proper treatment on account of the present business depression. The offer of the nominal fee rate of 8 visits for $3 is given at this time by Dr. Powell so that all sufferers from catarrhal diseases may afford to receive treatment as often as it is needed.

I take this opportunity of notifying all those who require treatment for catarrhal troubles that until April 30 my fee for treatment will be a charge of $3.00 for eight office treatments. In order to take advantage of this low offer it will be necessary to visit my office and enroll your name on or before April 30. All patients who begin their treatment on or before that date will receive treatment as long as they require it without any increase in this rate.

It is advisable to call as early as possible in order to avoid the rush and confusion that will naturally occur during the closing days of this unusual offer.

ARE YOU GOING DEAF?

Dr. Powell's specialty is treating obstructed nostrils, treating deafness and head noises and hearing loss places in the breathing tubes. He has spent 23 years studying the best way to do this. He can usually free the nostrils without cutting away the bones of the nose. His treatment is absolutely painless.

QUESTIONS FOR THE SICK

Are you afflicted with CATARRH, the symptoms and consequences of which are too well known to be repeated?

Are you afflicted with DEAFNESS, partial or complete?

Are you worried by ringing noises in the head or the extension of the catarrhal process to the ears?

Do you suffer from DYSPEPSIA, loss of appetite, bloating in the stomach or any of the forms of catarrhal inflammation of the digestive organs?

Have you a severe BRONCHIAL TROUBLE, hacking cough, pain in the chest, loss of sleep?

Have you been worried of approaching consumption?

Are you a sufferer from ASTHMA? Have you been led to believe that your disease is incurable?

IS YOUR HEART AFFECTED?

Do you suffer from an OPPRESSED FEELING, a CHOKING or SMOOTHERING SENSATION, IRREGULAR PULSE, SHORTNESS OF BREATH or FLUTTERING or PALPITATION?

Do you suffer from KIDNEY trouble? Have you pain in your back and have you been told that your MALADY will result in a SERIOUS, if not a FATAL DISEASE?

Do you suffer from LIVER complaint?

Are you continually MELANCHOLIC, unhappy and miserable, without any good reason why?

Do you suffer from NERVOUS trouble, which affects so many at this time, when nerves are shaken too heavily?

John Currie, a Y.M.C.A. war secretary will give an address, and Rev. Francis Russell, on leave from duty in the Philippines, will speak on "The Call of the East." Dr. William Shaw, general secretary of the World's C. E. Union, will be the principal speaker, taking for his topic, "After the War—What?" A general discussion conference will be led by A. J. Shurtle. The evening meeting will commence at 7 o'clock, when Mr. Shurtle will speak on "Christian Endeavor Opportunity."

LEAN DAYS FOR THE MONEY LENDER

(Special to The Sun.)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, April 18.—The draft law, which sent thousands of men into the army and navy, and the scarcity of labor during the war, which resulted in high wages, has made the business of the professional money lender the leanest in the history of the "profession," according to the report of Frank H. Pope, supervisor of loan agencies.

The main reason for the extraordinary decline in the money-lending business was due to the large number of men who entered the service," says Mr. Pope. "Knowing that these men would be practically barred from borrowing money a virtual embargo was placed upon thousands of individuals who usually were borrowers."

Attempts by the lenders to make collections were materially impeded by the fact that the law makes it virtually impossible to collect from a man in the service.

"Efforts made by some of the lenders to collect either interest or principal met in most instances with little success," says the statement. "An illustration of conditions as they existed is shown by the case of a delinquent at Camp Devens who when written to to meet his payments advised the money lender to save his stamps as he wasn't going to pay at that time, and knew that he did not have to pay them. His suggestion was accepted."

Mr. Pope continued: "Another reason for the decline in the volume of business from the licensed money-lenders was that many borrowers who had been getting an ordinary wage had gone into the munition plants and other lines of industry where very much higher wages were paid them than they had received before. Therefore they were placed in such an improved financial condition that they did not have to resort to borrowing."

"It is also true, however, that many cases developed in which persons receiving much higher wages found they were not sufficient to meet their demands, as they were prodigal in their expenditures, continued in an imprudent state, and were found to remain on the list of borrowers." HOYT.

STILL SEEK HELP FOR FARM WORK

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Despite the surplus of labor reported in many sections of the country, efforts of the United States employment service to secure labor for work on the farms have met with little success, says a statement today by the department of labor.

Reports received for the week ending April 12 from 59 cities indicate an improvement in unemployment conditions. Labor supply and demand in Connecticut shows a marked improvement during the week. Portland reports a surplus of 1000, the only city in Maine showing a surplus. Labor supply and demand in New Hampshire and Vermont indicate an equality.

Stomach Pains

Almost Drove Woman Frantic

Manchester Resident Regained Health When She Used This Tonic Treatment

Rich, red blood is absolutely necessary to good digestion. This is a fact which every sufferer from indigestion or stomach trouble should keep in mind when he is seeking relief from the distress which follows meals, the flatulency and sourness. Impoverished blood impairs the activity of the gastric glands and weakens the muscles of the stomach. On the other hand, imperfect digestion prevents the blood from receiving proper nourishment and causes it to become defective in quantity and quality.

A tonic, therefore, that is a specific for this blood will improve the digestion, and an improved digestion will hasten the correction of the anemic condition. The efficacy of this treatment is illustrated in the case of Mrs. Lillian Dow, of No. 155 Amherst street, Manchester, N. H. She says:

"I suffered from stomach trouble for years and sometimes became so worn out and run down that I was forced to stay in my bed for days. I had severe pains in my stomach, felt faint and dizzy at times and could eat very little. I suffered from gas on my stomach and from sour stomach. The least effort caused shortness of breath and I was forced frequently to stop and rest. I was very pale and couldn't sleep well."

"A friend recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to me and I began the treatment. After taking three boxes I had improved so much that I could do my work without resting. Gradually my color returned and my stomach gained strength. I no longer suffer from indigestion and I sleep well and can eat heartily without any distress. I feel good now. My weight had decreased to 95 pounds before I began the treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I now weigh 130 pounds. It has given me great pleasure to recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to my friends."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic for the blood and nerves. They begin at once to build up the system weakened by excess or overwork. The rich, red blood soon begins to show in cheeks and lips, the step is quicker, the eyes brighter and the good effect is felt in every organ of the body.

Two useful books, "Diseases of the Nervous System" and "What to Eat and How to Eat" will be sent free by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sends Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or you can order them direct by mail, postpaid, at 50 cent a box, six boxes for $2.50.—Adv.

ESCAPED FIRING SQUAD

French Heroine of War, Twice Sentenced to Death
by Germans, Is Decorated

PARIS, April 11.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Twice sentenced to death by the Germans, a young heroine of the war, Louise Thibault of Valenciennes, was decorated on March 21 by Premier Clemenceau with the Croix de Guerre with palms.

She distinguished herself by helping French and allied soldiers to escape from German prisons and twice the urgent intercession of the Spanish minister in Brussels saved her from the firing squad. She was eventually sentenced to penal servitude for life, but after serving three years of her sentence, the German retreat put an end to her imprisonment.

GREAT HELP TO FARMERS

Reduced Prices on Nitrate Will Mean a Saving of $1,500,000

WASHINGTON, April 18.—More than $1,500,000 will be saved by the farmers this year as a result of the action of the government in making available at reduced prices large quantities of nitrate for fertilizer. After the armistice was signed the war department released to the department of agriculture 111,000 tons of nitrate produced during the war in explosives. To this quantity was added 400,000 tons received from Chile by the agricultural department too late for distribution last year.

Under authority of the food control act the nitrate is to be sold at cost. Already, says a statement today by the department, farmers have taken up the full 151,000 tons in orders ranging from 200 pounds to 300 tons.

Cocoon Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulberry cocoon oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulberry cocoon oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Adv.

"Look out for rheumatic neuritis of your arm, chest, shoulder or hips after having an attack of influenza," said the Weldona man at his headquarters.

"Any germ disease has a tendency to cause neuritis, so protect yourself—get busy at the first sign of pain or soreness of the muscles. Lost control by disease attacks the arm, it is painful to get the hand to the head, the arm is weak. It is hard to put a coat on without assistance. If the chest muscles are involved the pain is often more severe at night, and increases on certain positions. The hip may be very painful, the pain running from the hip to the ankle. As a rule there is very little pain when at rest.

"Again, others escape neuritis, but have stiff knees.

"Hundreds of rheumatic sufferers are tied to their chairs because of stiff knees," said the Weldona man. "A sufferer from rheumatism may feel comparatively well except for the stiffness in the knee joints, but this is so severe that it makes one dread to move.

"Neglect of the first symptoms is usually responsible for these severe cases. The first indications of trouble may be slight stiffness after sitting any length of time. One may have to stand a few minutes before they are able to walk away without limping. Or, again, it may be a little stiffness in the knee joints on going up or down stairs, stepping on or off a curbstone, getting on or off a street car.

"A rough grating sensation may be felt by putting the hand on the knee, and swinging it back and forth; other times there is a tender point on the inner side of the knee. This may catch or pinch, causing sharp pains in the joint.

"Weldona relieves pain and stiffness of rheumatism. It doesn't make any difference whether it is stiff knees or painful arms—Weldona gets results—lets you know what relief means."

It was stated that the Weldona man would continue to meet the public at the Dows Drug Store every day to give out the free book, "The Germs of Rheumatism," and the Weldona Witness, and explain more about this new remedy.

PRES. WILSON THANKS SEN. HITCHCOCK

WASHINGTON, April 18.—President Wilson today cabled Senator Hitchcock, retiring chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, his thanks for the senator's recent message assuring him that the entire of nations was in favor of the League of Nations.

Senator Hitchcock's message was sent after the revision of the league covenant, containing reference to the Monroe Doctrine.

"I am warmly obliged for your message," the president said. "It cheers and encourages me, and I am delighted to know what we have done has so brightened the prospects of the league."

SPECIAL SHOW AT OWL THEATRE

Manager Ray Averill of the Owl theatre has sent out invitations to Mayor Thompson, members of the city government, all Lowell newspapermen, including workers in the business departments, as well as to all his brother managers and staffs of their theatres, to come to the Owl Sunday evening at 10:15 and see the special performance of the great Tremont Temple picture film, Heart of Humanity.

This picture is to hold the centre of the stage all next week at the Owl, but Mr. Averill says he realizes the newspaper and show people are such busy people that probably the only chance they would have to see the picture in which so many of them have manifested an interest would be Sunday evening at the close of the regular Sunday evening performance at the Owl.

Members of the Emerson players and Manager James Carroll of the Opera House have all accepted invitations and will be present as will also Manager Pickett of Keltia's and the vaudeville artists.

DANCED AT DEVENS
"Give us the Lowell girls every time," was the manner in which nearly a thousand V. D. boys, many of them from the 28th Division, expressed themselves last evening when they crowded into the Jewish Welfare Hut Camp Devens to trip the light fantastic with more than three young women from the local V. D. H. A. who made the trip to the entertainment and put on a dance for the boys from "over there."

Boys were there who proudly bore on their breast the Cross de Guerre; other boys whose lips or bandaged arms gave evidence that they had been in the game of hunting the Hun; but all forgot their wounds and bitter experiences as they whirled away the too short hours with the girls from the Spindle City who were there to cheer them up.

An orchestra composed of overseas men provided the music, and proved most acceptable. The committee in charge of the event consisted of Mrs. Louis Carr, Mrs. L. Quinn and Rose Rickard.

ON BRIEF FULFILLING

Chief Commissary Stewart William Nishenko, who for a year or more was connected with the local naval recruiting station, and who shortly after the declaration of war was assigned to the main layer Anostick, is enjoying a brief furlough in this city as the guest of friends.

The chief paid a visit to his former place of employment this noon and was given a cordial reception. Outside of a lame arm, caused by injuries received in the North sea when a mine exploded, the officer is well and in good health. He spent several months in New York a few days ago at anchor at New York, will leave the harbor Monday for Halifax, whence it will convey the aeroplanes, which will attempt the voyage across the Atlantic.

REOPEN DISCUSSION OF GERMAN TROOPS PRICE STABILIZATION

WASHINGTON, April 18.—President Wilson has directed the industrial board of the department of commerce and the railroad administration to reopen discussion of price stabilization and endeavor to find a common ground on which they can agree.

Chairman Felt announced today that the board would take up the question with the railroad administration immediately but any action probably will have to wait the return of Director General Hines next week from an inspection trip in the west.

REDS ATTEMPT TO STORM PARLIAMENT BUILDING

VIENNA, April 17 (By the Associated Press).—Bolshevik sympathizers today attempted to storm the Austrian parliament building, but were soon dispersed with a few wounded.

Members of the operators' committee asserted that as the strike of young women, which started on Tuesday, had spread until it involved about 12,000 male employees in addition to the 5000 operators, any conference now must be with a committee of Electrical Workers. The council which was said to represent some 60 local unions was to make a definite announcement of its position during the day. At the same time a statement of the position of the operators was looked for when the daily mass meeting of the young women was held.

In transmitting the statement of the postmaster general to the union leaders, Mr. Driver asked that the strikers' representatives meet with him at an early hour for a preliminary discussion, and it was said at the offices of the company that he was prepared to receive a committee at any time.

Hope for Early Settlement
Business men seriously handicapped by the continuance of the strike which has affected the Boston exchanges even more than those in the suburbs and outlying districts were hopeful of an early adjustment of the trouble. They were waiting with interest to learn the outcome of a trip to Washington undertaken by Mayor Andrew J. Peters last night, after conferences with strike leaders and company officials.

Mayor Peters believed he had a plan which promised early settlement of the strike, but declined to make any public statement as to the nature of it. He expected to see the postmaster general in Washington early today and it was said that a committee of the telephone operators was prepared to go to Washington immediately if word came from the mayor that their presence at the capital was desirable.

Claim Some Improvement
Officials of the company claimed some improvement in the service today but notwithstanding this little effort was made in this city to care for more than emergency calls. In some of the outside exchanges it was possible to make local calls and occasionally to get a toll call through.

Preparations were made to prevent if possible, any recurrence of disorder which occurred at some exchanges last night when college students and others who had managed the switchboards were interfered with and in some cases roughly handled as they left the buildings. Strikers continued today to picket the exchanges and in some instances claimed to have dissuaded outsiders from continuing at work.

WARNS STRIKERS TO RETURN TO WORK

CAIRO, Tuesday, April 15.—The city was outwardly calm today, although most of the public services were paralyzed by strikes, which are extending. The cabinet today issued a fresh warning admonishing the strikers to resume work tomorrow.

Sympathizers with the movement hold nightly meetings in the mosques. The nationalists are strongly in favor of an unyielding attitude.

REGULAR SERVICE OF "CAR BUSSES"

PRAGUE, Bohemia, April 17.—Correspondence of the Associated Press.—Prague aspires to become the great junction of air routes of Central Europe. From the flying grounds of Prostějov, near here, a regular service of "car buses" will be started soon to Padua, Italy, via Vienna, a distance of 225 miles.

"CAN I BE CURED?" SAYS THE SUFFERER

How often have you heard that sad cry from the victims of disease. Perhaps the disorder has gone too far for help, but oftener it is just in its first stages and the pains and aches are only nature's first cries for help. Do not despair. Find out the cause and give nature all the help you can and she will repay you with health. Look after the kidneys. The kidneys are the most overworked organs of the human body, and when they fail in their work of filtering and throwing off the poison that constantly accumulates in the system, everything goes wrong. REOPEN DISCUSSION OF GERMAN TROOPS SEIZE LIBAU

CITY FORCIBLY TAKEN AND Lettish Provisional Government Overthrown

Premier Ullman Protests to Gen. Vonder Goetz—Mobilization Hindered

COPENHAGEN, April 18.—German and Baltic-German troops have forcibly seized Libau and overthrown the Lettish provisional government, according to advices received by the Lettish press bureau here.

Lettish reserve troops in Libau were surprised by strong German forces on Wednesday, overpowered and interned. Later the Germans arrested the Lettish minister of the interior and several officials.

The surprise was made possible by the fact that Lettish troops had been sent to the front, while Baltic-German detachments had been brought back to Libau. The city is now held and patrolled by the Germans.

Premier Ullman has protested to General von der Goltz, commander of the German troops in Latvia, and the latter has expressed his astonishment over the incident. The Lettish government has been constantly hindered from mobilizing against the Bolsheviks which, it is said, accounts for the fact that Riga is still in the hands of the soviet forces.

A telegram was sent Wednesday evening by Premier Ullman to the Lettish representative in Denmark reporting the seizure of Libau and adding that he himself was safe and collaborating with the British mission and British warships in the harbor. The telegram stated that the Germans had occupied the premier's department and seized the papers there. It was added that the Germans demanded that a new ministry be formed with one third Germans. The telegram concludes: "We will accede to nothing."

SPARTAN CHIEF ARRESTED
LONDON, April 18.—Here Elphorn, formerly Spartan police chief in Berlin, has been arrested by German police on charges of espionage. An exchange of telegrams between Copenhagen and Berlin has been forced to land and he was captured.

2500 JEWS KILLED OR WOUNDED
PARIS, April 18.—Detachments of the command of General Pezura, the Ukrainian peasant leader, have been carrying out excesses against the Jews in Galicia, according to information reaching the Polish national committee here. At Hosiulna and Pastov, it is declared, 2500 Jews were killed and wounded. At Papiarka 250 are said to have been killed.

The Ukrainians are said to have pillaged Jewish shops at Javoroff.

BOY HIT BY AUTO
Clarence Trott, 8 son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Trott, 35 West Fourth street, was struck by an automobile on Bridge street shortly after noon today, receiving several contusions to the right leg and a laceration across the forehead. He was taken to St. John's hospital, and after his injuries had been treated was allowed to go home.

UNITED STATES ARMY RECRUITS
The following recruits for the United States army were forwarded from the local station at 117 Merrimack street to Boston for further examination this morning: Otilia J. Frenette, 18 Ford, infantry; Joseph H. R. Routh, 124 Dutton, cavalry; Edward J. L. Chance, 103 Dalton, cavalry; Napoleon Landry, 64 Middlesex, cavalry; and Urban Briere, 8 Jettus, cavalry.

MAY NOT CHARGE FOR PHONES DURING STRIKE
BOSTON, April 18.—Although the New England Telephone & Telegraph company, through General Manager William B. Driver, Jr., or any other official, has not definitely stated that subscribers will not be charged for interrupted service, or rather for the period during which the strike makes it impossible for them to use their phones, the understanding seems to be at the company's office, 50 Oliver street, that subscribers will not be expected to pay for service they do not receive.

Probably an announcement to this effect will be issued by the company in a few days, it is said.

FIRST DISORDER IN THE LOWELL TO HAVE REAL TELEPHONE STRIKE PURE FOOD SHOW

BOSTON, April 18.—The first trouble in connection with the strike of the telephone operators to reach a stage where police interference was necessary was recorded shortly before 9 o'clock last night when a crowd numbering about 1000 persons, composed mostly of young men and boys, chased two men through Post Office square and Water street and assaulted one of them on the stairs leading to the Washington street tunnel at Water street. The assaulted man was taken home in an automobile.

The other man, incidentally a newspaperman who as far as is known was absolutely innocent of any intention of interfering with the strikers, was chased up Water street, across Washington street and into a newspaper office.

Someone ran into City Hall avenue police station and told Sergeant William Flynn that a couple of men were being beaten in Newspaper Row. About a half dozen officers were immediately sent into the crowd, but they arrived just as the crowd was going back toward the office of the company, after Milk street and trailed along several who then, in this crowd, were several who yelled, "Kill the strike-breakers," but nobody, when planned down, seemed to know just who the strike-breakers were.

When the officers sent out on the riot call reached the Milk street building they found Lieut. Allen of City Hall avenue station and a few more officers there. The crowd arrayed itself in front of the building, evidently bent on making a demonstration, but orders were given by the lieutenant to clear the streets and the crowd, which now exceeded 1000, was pushed back into Postoffice square and farther in some instances. Within a few minutes the thoroughfare was cleared.

The police and reporters who were on the scene said that none of the strikers had any part in this demonstration. The girl pickets continued to walk up and down in front of the building and were not molested by the police. The crowd seemed to be composed for the greater part of young rowdies. The striking operators declared the action of the crowd was not at all to their liking and said they would appreciate it if the participants would mind their own business and let them handle the picketing.

Another exciting, but not at all serious incident occurred about 8 o'clock when four men, also said to be strike-breakers, were followed into the Parker House by several girls. The girls claimed the men were strike-breakers, who sought refuge in the hotel when they found they were being trailed. But the men got out and the girls did not stop in the lobby, going out when they found the men had departed. Then they marched down School street.

Pickets Seize Operator
An operator reported to be sitting in on the Fort Hill exchange was caught up by some pickets on Devonshire street about 9 last night and marched down to the South station. On the way the friends of the telephone girls joined the crowd. When the marchers arrived at the South station at least 1500 were in their ranks, with several operators in front escorting the girl.

The air was filled with hisses and remarks. At first, many persons who were at the station awaiting trains thought the girl was a strike-breaker arriving from New York, and this report was passed around. As the escorting party swept down the station platform two patrolmen took the lead and swung the girl around to the train gates. As the girl was pulled through the trainmen closed the gate. In that way the girl made her getaway.

About 5 o'clock several young men loitered at the headquarters of the company. Word was passed along by the pickets that students were applying for work. The extra guard of patrolmen advised the men to move on, and from that time no one was allowed to loiter near the company building or the exchanges.

About the same time more than 2000 telephone operators and their friends were gathered in front of the main exchange on Milk street. On the arrival of a special squad from police headquarters all but the pickets, who were moving, were ordered to move on.

A patrolman was stationed on every corner of Milk street. Fort Hill square and adjoining territory. This area was well patrolled by the striking operators, but after 9 o'clock everything was orderly.

A few emergency calls were put through at important pay stations during the day. At the South station a travelling salesman asked the girl if she would find out from a hospital how his baby, which had just undergone an operation, was coming along, and the girl put the call through.

Through the courtesy of Mr. George C. Fairburn, over 30 of the most famous pure food manufacturers of the country are going to turn Fairburn's market in Merrimack square into a regular Mechanics building edition of domestic science exhibits, to be called Lowell's First Annual Pure Food show.

The Unesco Boy will be there and with him little Miss Domino, with all her frills, the Campbell Kids, the Sun-kist Girl, the Bromedary Camel, all the way from the tropical oasis laden with dates and coconuts, the Gold Medal Man, and goodness knows how many more, but you will recognize many old friends, who smile out a cheery greeting from newspaper pages. And it's all free! No goods will be sold, no orders taken, nor admission charged.

The demonstrators and lecturers are coming prepared to entertain at least ten thousand people and, because of the fact that only one afternoon can be allotted to Lowell, no children, unless accompanied by grown people, will be admitted. The doors open promptly at 2 o'clock and for three hours every visitor will receive samples, cook books, recipes, and valuable literature from each booth.

Mr. H. P. Woodward of the American Sugar Refining company, will be in charge of the manufacturers' exhibits, and Mr. George C. Fairburn, Lowell's hustling young grocer, and Mr. L. F. Gendron, manager of the big food market, will be in charge of the food and will see that everybody has a good time. Remember the date—Wednesday, April 23rd, 2 to 5 p. m.

The following well known products will be exhibited:
Domino cane sugar, National Biscuit company, Dromedary products, Jiffy Jell, Campbell's soups, Rumford Baking Powder, Sun-kist fruits and marmalade, Libby, McNeill & Libby, Ward's cake, Van Camp's spaghetti, Gold Medal flour, Beechnut products, Stickney & Poor's spices, Sawlay (the new shortening), Baker's extracts, Crisco, Teeco Pancake flour, Kellogg's corn flakes, Douglas Salad oil, Curtis Marshmallow creme and many others.

MORE ON "WAYSIDE ADVERTISING"

A certain outdoor advertising concern operating here in Lowell, has presented the publication of some facts published in The Sun the other day in regard to "Way-side Advertising."

It was The Sun's duty to its advertisers to tell the truth about way-side advertising, for all that matters is not gold. This outdoor advertising firm didn't use its way-side or bill-board spaces to tell its story and in that it showed good judgment.

It is through the newspapers that this firm can best convince the public as to the merits of its form of advertising. It gives a list of business firms that use its billboards, but as they all use newspaper space very extensively, we cannot see the justice of pointing to their success as proof of the value of way-side advertising.

We would respectfully advise this very reputable firm to follow the example of these prosperous concerns by advertising its business in

PATRIOTS DAY

Tomorrow, the people of Massachusetts will observe a double anniversary in a holiday well named by the late Gov. Greenhalge. It commemorates the battle of Lexington, an event memorable in the history of the world as marking the first real step towards the founding of this glorious republic. April 19 also commemorates the shedding of the first blood in the Civil war, when the old Sixth regiment of Massachusetts was attacked in the streets of Baltimore and Ladd and Whitney, two Lowell boys, became the promagaries of the war. Recently, it has been discovered that another Lowell man, named Taylor, fell at the same time and his name will hereafter be linked with those of the other two Lowell heroes who fell on that occasion.

It is 58 years since the opening of the Civil war on April 19, 1861, and 144 years since the battle of Lexington in 1775. That any nation, from a small beginning, could have become the foremost in the world in less than a century and a half, is really astounding. Today, the United States is recognized as the wealthiest in the world, and in the recent war she stepped from her isolated position to assume world leadership practically in all that enlightened nations seek to accomplish.

The achievement of the United States during the war, although not comparable in many respects to what some other nations did, proved effective in speedily defeating the central powers and saving the world from German domination. The United States entered the war for the double purpose of defending her own liberties and saving civilization for the rest of the world so that the menace of German despotism might be overthrown.

The war is now over and a new era dawns upon the civilized world. The effects of that terrible struggle will not be overcome in this generation or perhaps in the next; but the work of the peace conference gives promise that under the peace treaty and the League of Nations, the world will never again be subject to devastating wars whenever any ambitious ruler may see fit to let loose his armies for the destruction of other nations. It is the earnest desire of every peace-loving citizen of the United States that the action looking to the prevention of war and the overthrow of militarism for all time will be successful. Sad indeed, would be the outlook for humanity if a war that cost $200,000,000,000 and 10,000,000 lives would not result in some world compact for maintaining universal peace.

The League of Nations in its first stages may not be perfect, but its aim is right and there is good ground for hope that whatever defects it may possess will be remedied as the years go by, so that peace may be preserved among the nations of the earth and that never again will the world be subjected to any such scourge as that which was precipitated by the German emperor in the recent war.

GREAT AVIATION FEAT

Just as soon as weather permits, two daring aviators waiting at St. John's, N. E., will start on one of the most marvelous trips ever undertaken. They are to cross the Atlantic in their airplanes if the weather or some mishap does not prevent them. In any case, they will make the attempt.

Harry G. Hawker of Australia, with a Sopwith, and F. P. Raynham of England, using a Martinside, are the rivals who contend for the honor of which will be first to cross the ocean. The landing place is to be in Ireland, although should conditions be favorable, the fliers might go on to the coast of England.

It is a hazardous undertaking but not more so perhaps than was the voyage of Columbus in his frail craft, when he discovered the western continent. Yet the voyage, if successful, will inaugurate the system of air navigation across the ocean and the example will so fire other aviators that eventually we may expect to see regular trips made by airplanes carrying passengers and light freight such as mail matter. This is but another step marking the progress of the times and showing the steady advance in what man can accomplish by ingenuity and daring.

Meanwhile, the United States navy is planning a flight to Europe by naval sea planes by way of the Azores, starting from St. John's. At first there was something in the nature of a race between England and this country as to which would be first to accomplish the feat of having an aviator fly across the ocean. The naval authorities at Washington do not seem so anxious, however, as to take foolhardy risks in unfavorable weather. Yet they are actively preparing for the first favorable opportunity.

The British aviators are competing for a $50,000 prize offered by a London paper. The Americans are simply looking for the glory of the achievement.

We have confidence that our naval aviators will be able to cross the ocean, if not ahead of the British, at least in shorter time.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP

In 1917, the United States government took over the railroads of the country in order to make them effective for the purposes of war. The government operation, according to the act of congress providing for the transfer, was to continue until 21 months after the declaration of peace. Judging from the large deficit reported annually, it seems that as a financial proposition, it considered in no other light, government operation is a failure.

There are so many aspects in which government ownership of railroads is objectionable to the American spirit that congress may decide to restore the railroads to private management sooner than was proposed in the original act. That transfer, it appears, should be made just as soon as any proper arrangement for conducting the roads as a general system, can be provided.

The telephone strike is another argument against government ownership of public service utilities. It was supposed that under government ownership such strikes would not occur, but apparently they have been more numerous since the government took hold of the property than ever before. Moreover the government, in some cases such as that of the railroads, has established a wage scale that private corporations cannot afford. It is very easy to push up wages when the public has to pay the bills, but there will be considerable trouble if these high rates are to be reduced.

We are convinced that things would be better for the country if the government confined its functions to governmental affairs. The enterprise and sagacity of American business men can be relied upon to conduct railroads, telephone systems and other public utilities to the best advantage.

TUBERCULOSIS

The anti-tuberculosis league has inaugurated a campaign against tuberculosis which we consider of very great importance.

The effects of the recent epidemic have left many of our people in a condition favorable to the inroads of tuberculosis. In order, therefore, to combat the danger as effectively as possible, a campaign of education is absolutely necessary.

Some people believe that tuberculosis is inherited. This is not the case. It is true, however, that a constitutional weakness may be inherited, so as to offer fertile ground for the tubercular germs unless overcome by hygienic living. It is the belief of medical men that with proper precaution, even people of weak constitution can stave off tuberculosis. The remedies are good nourishing food, plenty of fresh air, absolute cleanliness, plenty of sunshine, plenty of rest and plenty of enjoyable amusement.

Even on the matters of cleanliness and ventilation, many people show the utmost indifference or ignorance. On these points the league in question can render valuable service, and with all the agencies at its command brought to bear in fighting the disease, many lives can be saved in this community.

BRING FORD HERE

The Board of Trade should do everything in its power to induce the Ford Motor Car company to locate its factory in this city, as has been proposed. It is understood that the company is favorably impressed with certain locations here and if offered reasonable inducement, it might decide in favor of coming to Lowell. Although there may be some opposition to such a factory coming here, first, by corporations that might be indirectly affected by the high rate of wages paid by the Ford company, and second, by other automobile concerns, yet the interests of the city would be greatly advanced by the location of the Ford factory on any of the sites under consideration.

It is about time that the Board of Trade should score on some proposition of this kind. This desultory correspondence entered into by the board is not the best method of persuading the company that Lowell has many advantages for a manufacturing plant such as the Fords would establish. Other methods should be adopted and that without undue delay, if the board is in earnest in this matter.

FECI'S FATE

Francisco Feci, during his trial on the charge of murder, testified that his brother Luigi, admitted having murdered Fred Soria. Luigi Feci has escaped the police and it is now a question of whether he will allow his brother to be executed or come into court and admit that he, alone, committed the crime. There is, of course, a question of veracity involved in the testimony given by the convicted man who may have merely tried to get himself out of the clutches of the law, feeling that his brother was at a safe distance and would not be arrested. The course of procedure on the exceptions entered by counsel for Feci will allow plenty of time for Luigi to think the matter over and to reach a conscientious conclusion as to whether he should let his brother, if innocent, be executed. On the other hand if, as the lawyers assumed to be the fact, both men were implicated in the murder, then it is not likely that Luigi will be heard from unless arrested by the police.

THE STRIKE

Postmaster Burleson is at fault for not having investigated the demands of the operators and given a decision before the time set for the strike. His apparent opposition to collective bargaining is but a remnant of the old corporation enmity to labor unions. If President Wilson and practically all the heads of government departments, with the exception of Mr. Burleson, have cordially recognized labor unions, why should he stand alone in opposition? Why should he remain inactive or silent until he finds the public business tied up by the suspension of an important branch of the public service? The demands of the operators may be entirely just so far as the public is aware and until proven otherwise, the public is justified in assuming that they are. The responsibility is up to Mr. Burleson. A little tact in such matters is better than sphinx-like silence and inactivity.

OPPORTUNITY

A washerwoman's son won the first prize in the national school-children's Victory loan poster drawing contest.

Among those thousands who drew posters were the sons and daughters of professors, teachers, bankers, lawyers, farmers, mechanics, business men, physicians, artists, editors. Many of them came from homes of the wealthy and the well-to-do.

But the winner lives in the little cottage home of an Iowa washerwoman!

Nowhere except in America could that happen, for this is the land of the equal rights, the dwelling place of opportunity. Here a rail splitter becomes chief executive of the nation, a farm boy rises to be the guiding genius of the country's largest banking house, and the teacher of a rural negro school is field commander of all American armies in France.

It is safe to say that almost every day of our lives, opportunities are lost that if availed of, would lead onward to higher stages of success.

The peace conference has developed a new and picturesque phase. You remember all sorts and conditions of men have been present in official and unofficial capacities in Paris who, not knowing what the Big Four have in mind or intend to do, are heard to execute considerable walling, gushing of teeth and vituperation? Some of the London papers, friendly to Lloyd George and President Wilson, allude to such men as "the wild men at the keyhole." When the London papers want to be funny, they are quite comical, aren't they?

Will you have time tomorrow—the day of patriots—to make silent tribute to the war service of a little United States army pigeon just returned to this country, whose name is Cherami? Cherami, in her war service, lost a leg and a scar on the breast shows where she was wounded. Cherami made nine flights through heavy fire for the "Lost Battalion." A recommendation has been made that the Distinguished Service Cross be awarded her. Yes, she is probably worthy of the tribute patriots will accord her.

So the former German crown prince is to issue a personally written story of his own life thus far. It is a lot to expect in a Hohenzollern, but may we have courage to expect that for once he will try to take on the habit of truthfulness? If he could do that, and make his autobiography a frank one, we should know among other things, how many generals were sacrificed during the war to save his reputation as a soldier.

The high cost of living in Constantinople is a ferocious thing also, according to the naval authorities. It has been decided to ask the naval department to increase the ration allowance for navy men on duty in Constantinople, to $1.50 per day. The rest of the men in the navy are subsisting very comfortably on 30 cents a day. It is plain to see that hearing alluring music going on inside the harems of Constantinople cannot satisfy the void that exists in Jack's stomach.

The difference between the late Mr. Woolworth and most of the street railway companies in the United States, as illustrating the profit possibilities of a business whose unit of exchange is the humble little nickel, is silently but vividly shown when one remembers the great building in New York city which is to stand for generations as Mr. Woolworth's most imposing monument.

However much it was intended to be a humorous effort when the Vergeres "Enterprise and Vermonter" suggested that William Hohenzollern should be sentenced to Montpelier for the rest of his life, we insist that there is probably no city or town in these United States unclean enough to merit having to take on the stigma of incarcerating Europe's arch murderer.

The edict of men's tailors this spring, is for the sleeves of men's suits to be so tight that it is almost impossible for the wearer to crook his elbow. "Prohibition sleeves?" Yes, that is a good name for them and as we allow it to go by, we have in mind that after June 30, certain wearers of suits with prohibition sleeves may not be inconvenienced much by wearing such sleeves.

The Boston Globe in commenting on the fact that President Wilson may remain in France to witness the signing of the treaty of peace, asks who will get the fountain pen used by the German representatives. May we ask who wants a fountain pen that was used by Germans?

Sitting Game
 At a cavalry post on the border recently, the officer of the day was making the rounds of the post. It was a hot, sultry day. He seated himself on the corner post of a fence and waited for the sentry. The sentry, a recruit from the woods of Maine, rode slowly up and stopped only a few feet from the O. D. After waiting in silence for a few moments the officer asked:

"Well, what are you going to say?"

Force of Habit

Appropos the controversy relative to the rebuilding of the Broadway bridge one is reminded of the engineer who condemned a certain bridge, making the broad statement that if used in its present condition it wouldn't last more than a year. It was a city bridge, too, and for some reason or other the city solons allowed the engineer's firm warning to go by the boards. No repairs of any description were made and the bridge continued to do business at the old stand. Ten years later one of the erstwhile city solons met the engineer and, remembering the bridge incident, called the engineer's attention to the fact that the bridge which he had condemned ten years ago was still standing. "How do you account for that?" he asked.

"Force of habit—force of habit," said the engineer. It is barely possible that "force of habit" might sustain the Broadway bridge in its declining years, but persons interested in the matter seem to want something more substantial.

Had Him on a Line

The practical joke is as old as the Eden tree, but it always gets a laugh just the same. Wednesday morning a Bangor young man stepped into a grocery store on Forrest avenue, his usual "hangout," on his way to work. He left a bundle containing his overalls on the counter and friend grocer, when the visitor's back was turned, cut off the tail of a large haddock and slipped it into the bundle with the end sticking out so that the package had the appearance of a prize catch at the salmon pool. Presently the young man finished his smoke, grabbed the bundle and came downtown. His friends got interested at once. "How much does she weigh?" "Where'd you swipe the salmon?" and "What'll you sell it for?" were a few remarks hurled at him. "Anyways," he declared when he told the story, "I'm glad that grocer didn't slip the fish in my overalls while I had them on. It might have bitten me."—Kennebec Journal.

Puckling
 There's a good old "stange" word that of late is seldom heard. In this talk of high ideals and lofty dreaming.
 "Tis a word of humble sound, not exclusive nor profound.
 Never favored in the ranks of showy seeming.
 'Tis a word that never thrills you, nor makes your senses throb.
 This little word is "puckling." Are you puckling at your job?

 With its galaxy of statesmen keen and clever.
 While a few may point the way to the newer, greater day.
 All the rest of us must serve with main endeavor.
 There's a word that comes to face you when for favors you may ask—
 This little word is "puckling." Are you puckling at your task?

All the sages of the ages built their dreams through nights of toil.
 With the will (men call it genius) to slay the dragon of the soul.
 As on busy, patient pinions sears the lark above the soil.
 So by working rises man above his neighbor.
 Yes, one little word is parent of the two words "Making Good."
 That little word is "puckling." Are you puckling as you should?

The Path to Health

For many thousands of women the Path to Health has certainly been through Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When this great remedy was first introduced, and for many years after, skeptics frowned upon its curative claims, but as year after year has rolled by and the little group of women who had been cured by it has since grown into a vast army of hundreds of thousands—doubt and skepticism have been swept away as by a mighty tidal wave, until today this purely vegetable medicine is recognized as the greatest remedy for woman's special ills in the world. This is because it is a wonderful tonic and reconstructor which acts directly and favorably upon the feminine organization and is a specific for that purpose.

NEXT BIG TIDE OF WAR TAXES WILL FLOW INTO U. S. TREASURY APR. 30

Sum Big, But 20 Per Cent. Lower Than if War Was On—Taxes on Motor Trucks, Automobiles, Etc.

BY A. E. GELDOF
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 18.—The next big flow of taxes into the United States treasury will be witnessed on April 30, when dealers are to make their returns to the bureau of internal revenue on the goods subject to excise taxes which they sold between February 23, when the revenue act went into effect, and March 1.

Officials of the internal revenue bureau are hopeful that this payment will be as proportionately as the first payment of income and excess profits taxes on March 15, which exceeded $1,000,000,000.

Among the goods for which taxes must be paid on April 30 are motor trucks, automobiles, musical instruments, candy and chewing gum, sporting goods, cameras, firearms and hunting weapons, electric fans, thermos bottles, smokers' articles, slot machines, liveries, hunting and riding habits, articles made of fur, pleasure yachts and motor boats, toilet soaps, sculpture, paintings and works of art.

Any sales of these goods made by retail dealers between Feb. 23 and March 1 must be reported to the internal revenue collectors of their respective districts and the taxes paid on them April 30. The returns are to be made monthly thereafter. That is, the tax for the goods sold during March must be paid on May 31. Thus, dealers are given a month in which to tabulate their reports.

Not Luxury Taxes
These are not the so-called "luxury taxes," which cover wearing apparel, and do not go into effect until May 1. The tax on these goods may be added to the selling price of the article, but in the case of the luxury taxes the purchaser must be informed how much tax he is paying.

"These excise taxes," said Daniel C. Hooper, commissioner of internal revenue, Uncle Sam's tax gatherer extraordinary, "are related more intimately to the taxpayer than the income tax, because they come more frequently."

"No law can be enforced beyond the willingness of public sentiment to support it. Therefore we want the public to co-operate with us in gathering the taxes. Our men are working night and day, almost without hours, to analyze the revenue law and to deed part of the block to the city. James J. Kerwin, representing the Lawrence Mfg. Co., said that he did not appear as a remonstrant but that he wanted to emphasize the fact that cutting away the wall would probably be a more costly proposition than the other. Joseph Albert spoke in favor of the petition.

Among the other petitions taken up was that of George McElroy that Mr. Pleasant street be laid out and accepted. Mr. McElroy, Jesse Bowne, Mrs. R. E. Gregg and a Mr. Dyer appeared in favor of it and Joseph Fay was opposed. Mr. Fay said that he owned half the land on the street and that it would be a very costly proposition to go with the petitioners asked.

Other petitions which were given a hearing included the following: John P. Nutter, that the sewer in Albion street be extended to drain the premises in rear of No. 16; two R. Quinn appeared in remonstrance; J. A. Lequin, that a sewer be laid in Deland street; John Zebria, that a sewer be laid in South street to drain No. 128; and Ethel T. Webster, that a sidewalk be laid in front of her premises at 655 Stevens street.

Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy gave hearings on several petitions having to do with streets and sewers last evening, the most important being that of members of the Franco-American club that Hall and Aiken streets be widened at their junction. More than 50 members of the organization appeared at the hearing and Representative Henry Achiu was spokesman for the petitioners. He said that the bad corner there was due to the lack of city planning. He could see only two ways to improve the situation, one, the cutting away of a piece of the brick wall around the property of the Lawrence Mfg. Co., and the other, cutting off a piece of the block built by a Mr. Harris. He had found out that the wall of the Lawrence Co. protects considerable machinery and lumber and, therefore, the alternative would be to cut away part of the block.

Frank M. Andrews of Methuen, one of the owners of the block in question, said that he would be glad at any time to deed part of the block to the city.

transfer it equitably to the public. "The law is not so complicated as most people think. If you can make people see that their neighbors are paying just as heavy taxes as they are, they will be satisfied."

War's End Helps

"If the war had lasted six months longer, I should now be trying to get 20 per cent more in taxes out of the American people. We started out before the armistice was signed to write a revenue bill that would produce eight billion dollars. We wound up by passing one that will produce six billions."

"It is estimated that four of these six billions will come from the incomes of individuals and corporations; the rest from a varied assortment of items like the excise and luxury taxes."

"The new law taxes some articles sold by retail dealers, in which it differs from the 1917 law, which taxed only the producer. The producer passed the tax on the purchaser by increasing his prices. Under the new law, passing the excise taxes on to the purchaser in this way is strictly a private transaction. The government's only interest is to see that the tax is collected, but it will also see that the dealer does not misrepresent the tax and sell his goods for a price higher than his original selling price plus the tax."

"I ask the patience of the public in dealing with any delays or errors that the revenue bureau may make in collecting the taxes. It should be borne in mind that when I took charge of the bureau 18 months ago, it had only 3000 employees. Now it has 11,000, and these new employees have to be trained as we go along."

Coal Dust Lodged In Miner's Lungs

Mr. Bunn Tells How His Cough Was Conquered and Health Restored

"I contracted a bad cough in November, 1918. I was working in a coal mine and the doctors said the coal dust had settled in my lungs. I kept getting worse, couldn't sleep at night and had constant pain in my right lung and under my shoulder blades. I coughed so hard the blood would spurt out of my nose. I soon lost 20 pounds. Finally the doctors had me change cities and I went to the Connecticut Mountains and lived out there, but didn't improve."

"Then I came back home and started on Milks Emulsion. Thank God I did, as it did me a lot of good right from the start. I began to gain weight and that had killed my right lung. In a few weeks my lungs were free from coal dust. I could sleep at night like a baby, had an excellent appetite and my cough left me entirely. I gained back 50 pounds in weight and went back to work in the mines completely restored to health. I am working every day and feel as good as I ever did in my life."—H. Bunn, 60 Ave. and No. 12th St., Terre Haute, Ind.

Thousands of victims of dust in air, in mines and factories, develop the same trouble that Mr. Bunn had. Milks Emulsion costs nothing to try, so why not at least try it? It is certain to be a help, and it may do as much for you as it did for Mr. Bunn. Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to run down, nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day. It works like magic on coughs and colds.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles with you, use it according to the directions, and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by Fred Howard.—Advt.

Tells Dyspeptics What To Eat

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas on Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due to excess of acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bismuthated Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antidote than Bismuthated Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a digestant. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal is digested naturally and healthfully without need of pepsin pills or artificial digestants.

Get a few ounces of Bismuthated Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate and in the Bismuthated form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."

SEC. REDFIELD WARNS COUNTRY TO "GO AFTER" UNPAID PRICES; BOOSTERS

NEW YORK, April 18.—The profiteer is one of the chief perils of the present stage of American commercial reconstruction, according to Secretary William C. Redfield of the department of commerce, writing in the current number of "Investor & Trader," on the probable effect of the peace treaty. The secretary's statement, however, is most optimistic as to the country's business future, calling attention to the fact that the condition of the country is sound with bank resources never larger or more liquid.

"We have a great loan to face and heavy taxes to pay, but we shall meet them fearlessly and successfully and in a few months shall find that our faces are turned toward a bright and prosperous future," he continues.

"How can we help, each of us in this period of reconstruction? One way is to talk and act as optimists. For the chief thing needed is confidence. The profiteer has no place among us now. Go after him wherever you find him! He is the man who plays into the hands of the bolshevik. He is the man who provides a basis for the I.W.W."

"Do not try to sustain prices for the sake of a large profit. That prolongs the agony. That prevents the return of confidence. It is better far to lose something for a month or two than to prolong the hesitation for six or eight months or a year. Business now faces an opportunity for a sacrifice, temporarily, of personal profits that the greater gain may come when the buying movement starts. Business can aid the buying movement, can stimulate it, can bring it nearer by letting the public know it will be met half-way."

"There is no doubt, humanly speaking, that prosperity lies ahead for America, but there is yet an unsolved doubt as to what use America will make of her prosperity. Do we think of our sister nations as 20 years ago a trust magnate thought of the concerns whose business he would like to grasp? We have outgrown that in our domestic commerce. I do not speak of it as being illegal—it is more illegal today in the minds of the business men than on the statute books, but when we get beyond this three-mile limit, are we going to be as far advanced in our thought as we are at home? Can we carry the spirit of American law where the law of America does not prevail? If we do not, we may become fat and rich and possibly win the contempt of the world in so doing."

Commenting in the same issue on Secretary Redfield's statement, William R. Jones, the New York financier, predicts that immediately following the signing of the peace treaty the country will enter on one of the greatest periods of investment activities in the history of American business.

"Ample testimony to this effect," he declares, "is afforded by the sharp upward trend of security values since it became apparent that a peace compact could not long be delayed. Volume of trading in March, for instance, exceeded that of any previous month since the United States entered the war on April 6, 1917."

"The United States is emerging from the war stronger than ever, industrially and financially. In 1914 we were indebted to Europe to the extent of more than $5,000,000,000. Today Europe owes us an amount in excess of $10,000,000,000."

"The United States has more wealth than it ever possessed before and as the world owes it such an enormous trade balance, no difficulty should be encountered in maintaining the world leadership role. In fact the United States is the only source of large-order supply for most of the world's necessities. This applies to machinery and railway equipment as well as to grain, meat and other foodstuffs."

"Moreover, the April 1 crop report just published broke all previous records, pointing to the prospect of the largest crop in the history of America. As farmers are guaranteed $225 a bushel for wheat and as food animals are bringing enormous prices, indications are that the west will have more money for investment purposes than ever before."

BELGIAN WAR VETERANS PARADE FOR LOAN

NEW YORK, April 18.—One hundred and fifteen Belgian soldiers, battle-scarred veterans of Liege, Namur, Ypres and Flanders, marched up Fifth avenue yesterday in the first parade to be held here to promote the forthcoming Victory loan. Preceded by a band and a squad of mounted police, the Belgians, carrying a flag inscribed in gold letters, with the names of battles in which they participated and leading a number of their famous police dogs, received an enthusiastic welcome from the crowds along the route. The Belgians left last night for Washington.

52,000 SEATS FOR Y. D. PARADE

BOSTON, April 18.—Herbert Parker, who has charge of the grandstands for the parade of the 26th Division here on April 23, announced last night that the stands would have a capacity of 52,000 instead of 75,000 as previously announced. Of these seats 2000 will be given to Civil War veterans, 1200 to the first naval district headquarters, the northeastern department army headquarters and Camp Devens headquarters, and one thousand each to the governors of the New England states. The remainder will be distributed to relatives of soldiers.

My Photo and Signature

Originator of Goldine

Remember, I am going to give every man and every woman a free test of our Goldine Treatment, the medicine which was originated and perfected for suffering humanity and which is accomplishing such remarkable results. I am here on my tour of the leading cities where Goldine agencies are located.

Be sure you say this medicine gives new life, strength, energy and ambition to people who have lost their vim. This is the medicine that R. M. Blair says made him walk again after being a cripple for three years, and to our knowledge is the only medicine having the record of such a case in the entire country.

This famous medicine, as they tell us, makes up the lack of certain elements that the system requires for the development of nerve strength and physical endurance. This is the medicine under which Mrs. May recovered from loss of memory and health in six weeks when given only three months to live. Now does this work of her family of six. Goldine took off 35 pounds of meat and dropsy for this lady in six weeks. She says it was a miracle and her neighbors think the same.

Remember, I will meet you at Carter & Sherburne's Drug Store, in the Waiting Room, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, this week. Come. My visit to your city is at the request of many satisfied users of Goldine in this community, who tell me that they have never had a medicine that gave them the complete and continued satisfaction of Goldine.

TO WIDEN HALL AND AIKEN STREETS

Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy gave hearings on several petitions having to do with streets and sewers last evening, the most important being that of members of the Franco-American club that Hall and Aiken streets be widened at their junction. More than 50 members of the organization appeared at the hearing and Representative Henry Achiu was spokesman for the petitioners. He said that the bad corner there was due to the lack of city planning. He could see only two ways to improve the situation, one, the cutting away of a piece of the brick wall around the property of the Lawrence Mfg. Co., and the other, cutting off a piece of the block built by a Mr. Harris. He had found out that the wall of the Lawrence Co. protects considerable machinery and lumber and, therefore, the alternative would be to cut away part of the block.

Frank M. Andrews of Methuen, one of the owners of the block in question, said that he would be glad at any time to deed part of the block to the city.

LOWELL NAMES ON CASUALTY LIST

The casualty list published today contains the names of three Lowell soldiers. Private Andrew Pratt, 49 South Whipple street; Private Julian Gardie, 175 Charles street; and Priv. Gilbert F. Gaidron, 73 Moody street, all of whom have been slightly wounded, and in addition, included in the list is the name of Capt. Joseph W. Strong, a Wilmington man, who is reported as slightly wounded also.

some. Maybe you are eating three square meals a day, but can't gain in strength because you don't assimilate your food. Or maybe you are nervous, easily excited, can't sleep, get weak and tremble, have floating specks before your eyes, bloating and gas on your stomach and a bad case of indigestion. Compare your case with that of Mrs. Anna McKelvey, who says she had stomach trouble so bad that crackers and milk was her principal diet. She regained her health through Goldine and her case was of 12 years standing.

Then maybe again you are troubled with impure blood, have boils and abscesses by the dozen. Or, "Christ, the well known street car motorman, said he had them so bad that he felt like a second job. Yet Goldine relieved him in just three weeks. If you suffer from loss of memory and have catarrhs so bad that the mucus fills your throat until it chokes you, then your case is like that of Mrs. Elizabeth Birch, who recovered her health through Goldine.

Suppose you have to get up a number of times each night because of your water, your kidneys and bladder trouble. You severely, the water burns like fire, you have rheumatism until you can hardly get around, you have had blood poison in your left arm and are 87 years old, then you might think that Goldine could not do you any good. If you think that, ask W. H. Nichols. If you are still one of the doubters, I will give you names and addresses of these people so you can go and see and find out yourself what it has done and is doing. No matter how skeptical you are, you owe it to yourself or the loved ones in whom you are interested to investigate. We urge your investigation. Come tomorrow, and I will give you a large-sized test dose of Goldine. The minute you take it people will say, you will feel it to your toes. Then take it six days at your meals and watch the results. There is no string to this offer.

It is every man and woman of this city. We ask you to test Goldine for yourself. Come yourself or bring any suffering member of your family who has the most difficult health problem and try Goldine just once.

THE RIGHT LAXATIVE For The Little Ones

The natural condition of a child is to be happy and carefree. When the girl mopes and is indifferent to school and study, or the boy is sullen and refuses to go out and play, the child needs a laxative to empty the bowels and stir up the liver.

But something should be given that will produce the result in as simple and natural a way as possible. Harsh cathartics and physics are neither necessary nor desirable.

Many mothers have found that the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr.

Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin produces a free movement of the bowels without griping. A very little is required, and it is pleasant to take. A few hours after its use the child will be its happy self again.

It is an excellent remedy for the mother herself, and for the other members of the family, in obstinate or occasional constipation, for the relief of headaches, as an aid in colds and fevers, minor skin eruptions and all disorders where the basis of the trouble is constipation.

The druggist will refund the money you pay for Syrup Pepsin if it fails to do as promised.

Dr. Caldwell's SYRUP PEPSIN The Perfect Laxative

PRICE AS ALWAYS In spite of greatly increased laboratory costs due to the war, by sacrificing profits and absorbing war taxes we have maintained the price at which this family laxative has been sold by druggists for the past 6 years. Two sizes—50c and $1.00

Patriots Day

Patriots day was a new holiday in 1911 and there was a great pilgrimage to Concord and Lexington. The bicycle was then in vogue and thousands of youths went from towns and cities within a radius of forty miles to view the scene of the battle. The mills of Lowell did not close in observance of the day and there the labor unions protested loudly. In 1911, on Patriots Day, April 19, the 50th anniversary of the skirmish in Baltimore was observed here with a great parade, with 6000 men in line, followed by a banquet. The guest of honor was General Jones of Binghamton, New York, the commander of the Old Sixth. He had been blind for twenty years and at the banquet he exclaimed: "Oh, God, if I could see only for a few moments that I might gaze again into the faces of my old comrades, how I would rejoice tonight."

Lowell in 1775

In the old Sun I find a very interesting article by George O'Dwyer who since his boyhood has shown an aptitude for historic research. It is entitled "Lowell in 1775" and is as follows:

"How did Lowell look at the time of the battle of Lexington and Concord?"

"The great anniversary of that memorable battle which will be celebrated on such a grand scale at Concord and Lexington tomorrow, portrays to us the patriotism of our forefathers when they bravely asserted their rights, one hundred and nineteen years ago. Lowell at that time was the home of a few settlers who, hearing of the great advantages this site afforded in the way of farming and fishing, had built dwellings here after obtaining the consent of the mother town, Chelmsford."

"The principal dwelling places of the first settlers were at Pawtucket falls, Centralville, and Belvidere heights and on the few roads which were laid out over what is now the city. The others were straggling, some being in the center of the city or out in the suburban parts. The wants of the people were looked after by traders, dealing in English and West India goods, who had their respective stores at Pawtucket bridge, buying, selling and exchanging their products with the settlers at Dracut. There was also one individual who kept a store on the old turnpike road; half a mile east of the meeting house, who, probably did a fair business looking after the foot-sore and dry-mouthed traveler, by refreshing him with a glass of good old Medford rum or fine New England apple cider."

"There were a few grist and powder mills along the Concord towards Billerica, which ground the corn and grain, and made the powder for the settlers; the sudden demand for powder at that time being large, owing mainly to the threatening attitude of the British."

"The news of the British attitude towards the colonies and the suspicious movement of some British troops having reached the ears of the patriots in this section, the town of Chelmsford agreed to equip 32 minute men including officers, who were to be ready at a minute's notice. They were under the capable command of Capt. John Ford, a resident, who did good fighting with his men, in the first battles of the Revolution."

"It was the morning of the nineteenth of April, 1775. The peaceful little town of Chelmsford had just awoke with the rising sun and the farmers were beginning their day's work with hopeful hearts; some probably thinking of the impending war with England, others the outcome of their day's labor—their trusty flintlocks in order for daily exercise on the green—everybody unconscious of the bloody battle which was then being fought twenty miles away."

"How little did these patriots think of the magnitude of that fight which would change entirely the standing of this country with England?"

"But the cause of America had been declared! Paul Revere had carried out his midnight vigil."

"The alarm bells were ringing, messengers on fleet footed steeds were carrying the news from town to town in a wide radius and each town notified was to send the alarm on outward and thus it went."

"It is still morning; a horse and his rider were seen speeding—flying along the turnpike roads towards Chelmsford meeting house. His horses though fresh is covered with foam, but he dashed by with renewed speed towards the field adjoining a farmhouse where a man was at work plowing.

"He shouted to the man, nearly out of breath:

"To arms! To arms! Lexington and Concord are taken! The British are moving! On to Boston!"

"Then he speeded on towards the main settlement warning the farmers along the route, repeating his cry and creating general consternation."

"At last Chelmsford was reached. Dashing through the streets of the town, he shouted his warning as he went, stopping only to refresh his horse and then dashing onward to the settlers of other towns."

"The startled and surprised inhabitants of Chelmsford were overcome with astonishment and dismay. They looked at each other with sad countenance. But there was no time for these feelings to hold sway! "The minute men, warned by the notes of the town bell, hurried to Chelmsford green from all parts, and under Captain Ford, quickly formed and started on the road for Concord and Boston. They arrived at Concord after continuous marching in time to participate in the close of the fight."

"The news of the fight at Lexington and Concord reached Dracut, (Pawtucketville) late in the afternoon of the nineteenth. As soon as the information was received the old meeting house bell was rung, the minute men in two companies under Captains Peter Coburn and Stephen Russell were quickly formed and everywhere there was general bustle and excitement. The young men of the town fond of adventure and excitement flocked around and eagerly joined the two little companies of patriots. They arrived at Boston the next day after their long tramp and were assigned quarters by the authorities."

"Thus Chelmsford, Dracut, Billerica and Tewksbury had been aroused. They had responded quickly, giving their best men for the cause, leaving their families and their homes. They had shown their patriotism by the response to a sudden call to arms."

"The glorious battle for liberty had begun. The patriotism of the people had shown itself in the first encounter. The minute men had done their full duty in this first battle for independence."

CHURCHES OBSERVE GOOD FRIDAY

The Catholic churches of the city observed Good Friday today with customary services. The mass of the presanctified was celebrated this morning and at 3 o'clock this afternoon stations of the cross were held. This evening the lenebrae will be sung in many of the churches and the usual sermon on "The Passion" given.

Tomorrow will be Holy Saturday and one mass will be celebrated after which holy water will be blessed. Tomorrow will be a day of abstinence for Catholics up to noon.

People Constipated and Don't Know It!

Assisting in the receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Talbot, parents of the bride, Mrs. Marble and Miss Marble of New York, and the bridesmaids.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. Ewart, Mrs. James Ewart, Chauncey W. Towne, Esq., of New York, Mr. Goss of Vergennes, Vt., and daughter, Miss May Goss and Mr. Gillis of New York, uncle of the groom.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Marble departed on a wedding tour, before leaving the bride divided her bouquet among the bridesmaids and the ring hidden therein fell to Miss Goss."

Owing to the fact that the anniversary fell in Holy Week, Mr. and Mrs. Marble avoided any formal observance of the event, but they were congratulated by many of their intimate friends at their home.

This Skin Peeler All the Rage in Society

There is a growing tendency among women of culture and fashion to pay more attention to hygienic means of preserving their charms. The advent of mercurized wax doubtless has been largely responsible for this. This remarkable substance produces complexion so natural in appearance, so magnificently beautiful, artificial complexions are no longer desired. Instead of "doctoring" an offensive skin, the skin is peeled off. The wax peels the skin so gradually, in such fine particles, no discomfort is experienced. The fresher, younger skin beneath, wholly in evidence within a week or two, is like white, satiny soft and smooth. It's not a patched-over complexion, but a brand new one. That's why mercurized wax has become such a rage among society folk. The wax is put on nights like cold cream and washed off mornings. All druggists have it; one ounce will do.—Adv.

EASTER MUSIC IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCHES

Peace with its more than usual significance this Easter will find happy and joyful interpretation in the musical programs of the local Catholic churches on Sunday morning. Those in charge of the various choirs have arranged musical offerings that will faithfully express the cheer and thanksgiving that are to dominate this year's observance of the great ecclesiastical holiday. The most elaborate programs, of course, will be given in connection with the high mass in each parish and in many of the churches there will also be special programs for the evening vesper services. Programs to be carried out in the various churches are as follows:

Hail, New Englanders!

You have done your duty and something more.
You have done your duty, and you have done it with a spirit which gave it distinction and glory. And now we are to gather the fruits. We are ready to make good in the establishment of peace upon the permanent foundation of right and of justice.

The New Task

is not new. It is an old one unfinished. It is the problem of financing the war. When you New Englanders set your faces in any direction you keep them in that direction until the task is finished.

LOWELL WOMAN BRUTALLY ASSAULTED

Mrs. Rose Cote, who up to a short time ago resided in this city, but who recently moved to Haverhill, was the victim of a brutal assault at her home, 53 Mt. Washington avenue, Haverhill, yesterday afternoon and as a result she is now at the General S. H. Gale hospital in Haverhill, and her condition is very serious. She claims to know her assailant. She gave the police a name, but they have not found him.

According to the story related to the Haverhill police, Mrs. Cote claims that while she was alone in her house there was a knock at the door and when she opened it the man tried to enter, but she refused to admit him. She alleges that he pushed past her and closing the door, dragged her into a room nearby.
She alleges that the man threw her across a bed, drew a knife and began slashing her across the face.
Her arms were cut when she endeavored to protect herself.
After using the knife, Mrs. Cote told the police, her alleged assailant, hastened from the house and ran up Mt.

Washington ave. and was then lost sight of.
Patrolman Rollins was summoned and a general alarm was sent out by the police signal system for the arrest of the man, but no trace of the alleged assailant had been found last night.
City Physician H. M. Crittenden was called to dress the wounds of Mrs.
Cote, and he ordered her removal to the hospital, where 29 stitches were taken to close the ragged wounds on the left side of her face. Nine stitches were taken in the gashes on her left arm and two were necessary to close a wound on her right arm.

It is claimed that Mrs. Cote's husband is in the service, having been drafted from Lowell.

Famous Dartmouth Coach Went Over a Private—Returns a Major

BOSTON, April 18.—Maj. Frank W. Cavanaugh of the 102d Field Artillery of the 26th Division, former coach of Dartmouth college football eleven, returned to America yesterday as a casual officer on board the Patricia.

Maj. Cavanaugh's face bore the marks of battle, for he was severely wounded when a German shell exploded against the door of his dugout at Semouren, in the Argonne, Oct. 23, 1917. He was standing outside the house when the backwash of the shell ripped my face open," he said.

A scar under his right eye and three other wound marks on the right side of his face remain. "Cav," as he is known by football enthusiasts, declared that American army surgeons saved his right eye and patched his face up better than he had thought possible.

Maj. Cavanaugh enlisted as a private in April, 1917. He was promoted to lieutenant, captain and major, and was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for his gallantry in the Argonne. He had ordered a battery under his command to put down a barrage which saved an infantry company from being attacked by greatly superior numbers of enemy troops. He said he has no plans for the future.

SELECTING THE BOYS WITH THE "PEP"

A spirited elimination contest to weed out the snappiest dozen young soldiers in the execution of the manual of arms was held in the high school annex drill shed last night, when nearly 100 regimental members drilled before Capt. John S. Scott, Co. 16th Regt. M.S.G., Lieut. Louis R. Kew, Lieut. Ralph A. Brackley, First Serg. Warren Wildman, Serg. Louis Buchsbaum and Serg. John Kershaw, all of the State Guard. The drill was preparatory to the annual battalion night of the regiment.

The dozen drillers who withstood the ordeal last night were the following: William Coughlin, Royal K. Dexter, James Lowe, Harold Hoyle, Alvin Brackley, Timothy O'Keefe, George S. Thomas, Delaney, Leo Emmond, Karl Marshall, Leo Leclair and William Thompson. These men will fight it out for premier honors in the individual drill on the night of the 23rd.

Another elimination drill was held last evening among the members of Co. A and a sufficient number of men were selected to make three squads. This was done to reduce the company to manageable size in the cramped quarters of the drill shed. This company will give an exhibition bayonet drill on battalion night.

PATRIOTS' DAY GAME

Lowell High Meets Manchester High Tomorrow

All men wearing the uniform of the United States army or navy will be admitted to the Lowell High-Manchester high baseball game at Spaulding park tomorrow afternoon, free of charge. The game is called for 2:15 o'clock, weather permitting. The local school puts a team of veterans on the diamond this season, as practically every man is back from last year. Coach Donahue has not picked the initial lineup but, judging from practice sessions, it will be as follows: Right field, catch, Ordway or Anastas, pitcher; catcher, first base, Markham or Boash, second base, Ray Reynolds, captain, shortstop, Brown, third base, and Mansur, O'Hell and Cahill in the outfield. Joe Cronin will umpire tomorrow's game.

ADULTS' BASEBALL

The Belvideres are without a game for Saturday, and would like to hear from a fast 17 or 18-year-old team.

GAME POSTPONED

Rain necessitated the postponement of the Howe High-Mitchell Boys' school baseball game at Billerica yesterday after three innings had been played. The game will be played off on Monday, the 21st.

HERE TONIGHT

Lowell and Providence will meet at the Crescent rink tonight in the final polo game of the season, and as Lowell and Salem are neck and neck for the pennant, which will not be settled until tomorrow's game, a record crowd is expected to turn out to witness the important battle. Lowell must win tonight to remain in the hunt for the tag. A defeat will eliminate the Harbors crew. The players are all "hot" over the race, and a lively battle is in prospect. Salem jumped into the lead by winning last night, and a Lowell victory means that the Harbors will go to Salem tomorrow afternoon with a lead of half a game. Should Lowell win tonight and tomorrow afternoon, the pennant will again come Lowell's way, should they win tonight and lose tomorrow afternoon. Salem would again be on top, with the games for Saturday night determining the championship. Lowell plays at Worcester Saturday night, while Salem will go to Providence for the second holiday game.

RICHMOND, Va., April 18.—The Boston Red Sox had another, and their last workout here yesterday before starting north when they catered through nine innings against the Richmond Medical school team, winning 13 to 1. Barrow sent George Dumont through the entire game and the former senator showed excellent stuff when he felt so disposed. The whole team hit the ball hard, Ruth getting two singles and another homer over the fence in right field. Gilbooley played in the outfield and showed tremendous speed.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Middlesex A.C. has two games scheduled for tomorrow. In the morning the team tackles the Wolves on the North common and in the matinee engagement will meet the F.A.S.C. at Washington park. See the manager of the Middlesex club at the Highland Daylight alleys for future dates.

The Lisbons and Indians meet on the South common tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The Lisbons are anxious to fill out their season's schedule. Reply through this paper.

The Central Cubs would like to play any 14 or 15-year-old team, Wanderers preferred. Answer through this paper. The Wanderers, by the way, blanked the North Billerica Rovers on Tuesday, 9 to 0.

The Bowers Street A.A. challenge any 11 or 12-year-old gang in the city. Reply through this column.

The Victorias would like to arrange games with 15 or 16-year-old teams. Send challenges through this paper, or telephone to Joseph Breen, 1856-M.

The Rangers are looking for games with 14 or 15-year-old clubs, especially tomorrow on the Chambers street playground.

The Erie A.C. is looking for games with 13 or 14-year-old teams. Send all communications to E. Harrington, 218 Adams street.

The Pawtucketville Juniors would like to arrange a game with the Congress A.A. for Monday, April 23. Other games also are wanted. Send challenges through this paper.

GOLF RECORD

CHICAGO, April 18.—Recent claim of a Philadelphia golf player to have broken all known American records by playing 144 holes in one day today brought a statement from a local statistician that the eastern record had not come up to one made here 10 years ago.

George H. Litton and Andrew McCaughey of the Exmoor Country club, according to the statistician, started play at 4:30 a. m. and stopped at 7:50 p. m., making 153 holes.

According to the same statistician, the world's championship is held by K. R. Lundberg, who in June, 1910, played 216 holes over the Aberdeen golf course in Scotland, starting at 2:30 a. m. and finishing at 5 p. m. It is estimated he walked more than 40 miles.

TRIANGLE A.A. TO REOPEN APRIL 29

The Triangle Athletic association will reopen on Tuesday evening, April 29, at the Playhouse with a well arranged boxing program. For the main attraction Larry Hanson and Pete Hartley, both prominent lightweights, will meet. Hanson and Hartley are two of the most noted Danish boxers in this country, and are out to settle the claim of supremacy. They are well known in this vicinity and are noted for their aggressiveness. For the semi-final number Eddy Dolan of Lawrence and Eddie Barcroft of Quincy will appear. There will be two preliminaries and an extra try-out number by local boys. Dave Dasher of Cambridge, the well known old time boxer, will be master of ceremonies. Jimmy Mahan is the matchmaker.

POLISH TROOPS "LOST"

COBLENZ, Thursday, April 17.—(By the Associated Press).—The first train of Polish troops being taken to Poland became "lost" soon after entering occupied districts of Germany. The train pulled into Treves last yesterday and because of the misunderstanding of orders on the part of German railroad men, it was sent to Cologne instead of to Coblenz.

Early today when the soldiers looked from their car windows and discovered they were in Cologne, there was some excitement on board the train, but allied officers soon straightened out the misunderstanding and the train was brought to this city. When the Poles got here and crossed the Rhine their excitement had disappeared and officers on duty at the station in this city reported that the discipline on board the train was excellent.

As a result of the mixup the second train of Polish troops arrived here ahead of the first train and started on its journey across Germany, taking the place of the train which had been misdirected.

LAWRENCE WANTS BASEBALL

LAWRENCE, April 18.—At a special meeting of the city council here yesterday it was voted to apply for the introduction of a bill in the legislature which will give permission to the city to rent O'Sullivan Park here to private or semi-private interests for athletic events so that admission fees may be charged.

The park is now the property of the city and is the only place suitable here for such events as high school and league baseball. Without the permission of the legislature, it is said, no athletic events could be held there for which admission could be charged.

MUTINIOUS CONDITIONS
PREVAIL IN EGYPT

PARIS, Thursday, April 17.—(Havas).—Newspapers here feature reports as to the gravity of the Egyptian situation, saying there is great concern among British authorities over the nationalist movement. Despatches state that mutinous conditions prevail at Cairo, Alexandria and Port Said, and several mysterious deaths in connection with the disorders have occurred.

The insurgent leaders demand that European officials resign, that English citizens leave the country and that a Musselman empire be founded with a Caliph at Cairo.

DERBY STORE HAS LAMPS AS GIFTS

With the holy festival of Easter there is to be a considerable extent as to the gift of giving. The Derby Store, 242 Church Street, has a large display of electric lamps and novelties suitable for Easter gifts. Inside the store, too, on attractively arranged display stands, there are as many types of lamps and as many prices as the range of the community pocketbook demands.

There is, for instance, the clamp electric light so constructed that it makes an ideal Easter gift for the man who often shaves after dark. It will be remembered he grumbled many times that he could not bring his mirror close enough to the light in his room and he could not move the stationary electric light. But the clamp light removes his objections for it is made so that it easily and quickly can be clamped onto any kind of a projection near the mirror and at any angle. This clamp lamp is also splendidly adapted for persons who wish to bring the source of light as close to their reading as possible. It is sold at a moderate price and shows in its appearance its beautiful and artistic workmanship.

This one novelty is but one of many such things on sale at the Derby store and the perplexed Easter shopper would certainly go farther and fare much worse in neglecting to make the Easter gift something electrical.

STANDARD BOTTLING CO. OWNS SPRING

Undoubtedly many of the people in this city are unfamiliar with the famous "Mt. Pleasant Spring Water." This water has a mineral substance of 3.5% and is exceeded in purity only by the famous Poland Spring Water which is less than 2% mineral substance.

The "Mt. Pleasant Spring" is one of the largest and best known natural springs in the country and is situated on Westford and Steadman streets near the Chelmsford line.

At no time in history has this spring been known to be dry. The free flow of it is truly remarkable, over 1200 gallons per hour, due perhaps to the fact that it is surrounded on all sides by a heavy pine timber which has been allowed to remain in its natural state so as to protect the marvelous spring.

This probably is the reason of the wonderful purity of its water. The Standard Bottling Company now owns and operates the spring and distributes the water to local users in addition to using it in their beverages. Those who use the "Mt. Pleasant Spring Water" can testify as to the purity and substance of it.

EASTERN VULCANIZING CO. FULL OF ORDERS

Due to its enterprise in advertising in The Sun, coupled with the excellent and conscientious tire repair work being done at its place of business, 242 Church Street, the Eastern Vulcanizing company, R. Rodriguez proprietor, announces this week that it has been necessary to add another workman to his force and this will result in the tire repair service being even more prompt than what is the case now.

The telephone number of this concern is 1855 M. and under a new facility offered patrons of the Eastern Vulcanizing company, arrangements can now be made so that the auto of the company will call at homes and business places for tires to be repaired. In order not to slow up or interfere with the principal part of the company's work, its tire repair service, patrons should bear in mind that work can only be called for and delivered the first thing in the morning and after 5 p. m. at night. In many instances, by the introduction of this new system, it will be possible to call for a set of tires or one tire, in the morning, repair it and have it returned at night which of course makes an exceedingly convenient service.

There are hardly any tires, Manager Rodriguez announces, but that when damaged, even if it seems to have been considerably damaged, can be fixed at a comparatively inexpensive cost and at the same time, obtain two or three thousand more miles of wear. With the delivery, telephone and other service at this place, and the moderate prices charged, it is no wonder that the Eastern concern has had to add to its working power.

DUFRESNE'S AD HAS BROUGHT BUSINESS

W. H. Dufresne and his crew of three skilled painters, as the result of a moderate priced ad on this page published for the past three or four weeks, is having his hands full with the great rush of spring business in the way of repainting motor cars. Dufresne's place of business is at 592 Broadway, rear, and he has been so busy painting autos that he hasn't had time to paint any kind of a sign to put out front and show where he is doing business. But 592 is the number on Broadway and if you go down the alley you will find Dufresne and his crew literally "up to their necks" putting beauty on motor cars.

In spite of the large amount of work pouring in on him, Dufresne wishes it announced that even the costliest and best jobs of motor car painting he does, can be delivered back to the owner a week after being received at the shop. In case of a small amount of work being necessary on a car, it can be done at the Dufresne shop so as to be turned back to the owner in two days or so. Dufresne's prices are exceedingly moderate. It is possible to give a diver, for instance a "regular" coat of paint at an expense of about $30 which in these days of high cost paint and labor as well as a very moderate price. One of the great qualities and best advertisements for the Dufresne shop is the fact that when he pronounces a car finished and is ready for it to leave his shop, in the majority of cases it looks better than when it left the original factory, so far as the painting part of it is concerned.

TURCOTTE ADDS TO HIS CRACKER FAMILY

The famous Bradt Cracker bakery, a Lowell institution—and we call it a Lowell institution because it has been baking crackers 56 years—will soon have "a family of crackers" for, since the new proprietor, O. Turcotte took charge of the business four years ago, in addition to the staple product of the factory, the well known Bradt soda cracker, he has originated a new kind of a cracker called the "butter cracker." This is a small, round, neat looking cracker very suitable for family use in soups and chowders. This factory, located in Whiting Street, also makes oyster crackers.

In a short time Mr. Turcotte says he intends to make a new saline cracker and place it on the market. The Bradt bakery crackers are sold at practically every store and market in Lowell and the Lowell retailers can generally be found pushing this line of goods from the fact that they are recognized to be a better grade of article than what is sold by the cracker trust. Two generations of Mr. Turcotte's family, have worked at the Bradt bakery. Uncle Peter Vian, one of the master bakers, worked at this factory 56 years. Mr. Turcotte started when he was a boy and he has worked as a baker in the factory 25 years. The demand for the goods turned out by this factory has grown to such an extent that Mr. Turcotte announces he is to put on one more road salesman with a truck to cover new territory between here and Reading. The factory is working at top speed, five skilled bakers being necessary and the work requiring 50 barrels of flour per week. It ought to be a matter of pride with the Lowell housewives to demand of their grocer, "made-in-Lowell" crackers.

AIN'T NATURE WONDERFUL

By Gene Aborn.

When spring shuffles up the deck and deals out the first hand of a new season, there are two plays the male species stack up the chips to open the game with. Either crawling out of the "heavies" or jumping into a suit of jumpers to overhaul the gas gongola. Either case usually ends up with a high and low temperature. When the balmy air works into the auto bug's mechanism, he backfires to the bus coop to manœuvre the mechanism of the chugger. Like munching bleacher berries, he doesn't know when to call it a halt. With the spring hope-pipe airmo in his dome, he transfers it to the engine and cylinder heads, with wipers, wrenches, elbows, bruised digits, grease in the gills, hard words and so it goes. Overhauled in the home garage, and hauled over to the repair shop.

Mr. and Mrs. David Decelles of Lakeview avenue, Dracut, have received word to the effect that their son, Sergt. Walter Decelles of Headquarters company, First Division, regular army, who has been overseas for the past 22 months, has landed in New York. It is expected the young officer will be sent to Camp Devens to be mustered out of service.

Open house for the gallant Y.D. lads will be held at the Lowell "Y" tomorrow, and a fine program of entertainment has been mapped out under the direction of Miss Mildred Beale of the war camp community service. All privileges will be free to the doughboys, and sleeping accommodations for those who "stay over" have been arranged for 150 men.

A union service in observance of Good Friday will be held this evening at 7.30 o'clock at the Kirk Street Congregational church. There will be communion and sermon by Rev. George H. Guttererson of Boston. Members of all Congregational churches in the city, and others who wish to attend, are cordially invited. This service will conclude the Holy Week devotions.

Hale and hearty at the age of 75, Benjamin Holt of 668 Broadway, celebrated his 75th birthday anniversary yesterday. A large number of friends and acquaintances were on hand for the occasion, and joined in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Holt the best of luck in the future. Mr. Holt has been for several years a prominent figure in the life of St. Paul's church, and is well known as one of Lowell's representative business men.

Tuesday, April 22, has been set as the date for the annual visit of Congressman Rogers to North Billerica, for the purpose of meeting his constituents and transacting any official business they might have with him. The congressman will be at the post-office from 12.15 p. m. to 1.30 p. m., where he will be glad to meet his friends. On the same day he will be at the Billerica Centre postoffice from 10.15 a. m. to 12 noon.

Another Lowell man has been named for an important post. Ellery B. Gordon, a former well known resident of this city and son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gordon, 97 Read street, was recently appointed secretary-manager of the National Retail Coal Merchants' association with headquarters at the capital. Mr. Gordon is well fitted for his new position, as he has for several years been connected with the federal trade commission in New York and during the past two years has been assistant in the New York fuel administration.

A wagon owned by a Mr. Smith of Tewksbury was smashed into smithereens on the state highway in Wamesit last evening, when it was struck by an automobile owned and operated by Joseph R. Dubuque of Wamesit. The latter reported the accident at the police station, stating that in order to avoid a collision with an automobile without lights, he turned his machine onto the electric car tracks and there collided with Mr. Smith's wagon, which did not have any rear light, he said. No one was injured.

The New England Farm and Product Foundation, an organization of merchants, manufacturers and bankers, will hold a meeting in Middlesex hall, this city, on Tuesday evening, April 22, at 8 o'clock, under the direction of the Lowell board of trade. The object of the meeting is to bring clearly before Lowell business men the reasons for the formation of the foundation, why it is of interest and how it may be assisted in its work. Reginald W. Bird of Boston, chairman; John A. Sherley secretary; Howard W. Selby, Market Bureau director, and J. C. Starbuck of Cambridge will briefly outline the work of the foundation and discuss its plans.

—Sweetser in Command

BOSTON, April 15.—The transport

Winifredian with 2300 officers and men of the 26th Division including ammunition, sanitary and supply trains docked at Commonwealth pier early today. Former members of the old First Vermont Infantry, the Massachusetts Coast Artillery and Rhode Island Cavalry were among those on board. Col. Warren E. Sweetser, commander of the 101st Train Headquarters, was in the lead of the troops.

Gen. Edwards Greets Heroes

The transport had expected to reach the outer harbor shortly after midnight, but the heavy fog encountered caused a temporary loss of bearings so that she anchored to await the dawn. Major General Clarence R. Edwards, aboard a submarine chaser gave the first home greetings to the troops about 10 miles beyond the Graves at 7 o'clock. When the vessel arrived in President Roads, General Edwards went aboard and made two brief speeches of welcome to the men.

The enthusiasm of harbor greeting equalled that given any of the homecoming transports. The usual showers of smoking material and edibles were thrown by the relatives and friends aboard the little fleet and the hands contributed continuous serenades.

Tales of difficult and dangerous work in caring for the wounded and bringing up supplies under shellfire were related by some of the soldiers in telling of trying experiences of their buddies.

They expressed some regret that their stories might lack some of the brilliant coloring woven into the experiences of the infantrymen on the firing line, but felt that they had fulfilled the tasks that were given them.

Col. Sweetser Praises Boys

There were three stretcher cases and three hospital cases on board but with this exception the troops were in excellent health and spirits. They reported an uneventful voyage from Brest.

Col. Sweetser spoke in praise of the men in the ruins. "Repeatedly they were commended for their work," he said, "and they certainly were the most willing bunch of workers you ever saw." He was formerly commanding officer of the Sixth Massachusetts Infantry and lives in Wollaston.

Companies A and B of Col. Sweetser's own unit, the 101st ammunition train headquarters, were on board. They were recruited largely from the former Vermont First Infantry and the Massachusetts Coast Artillery.

The 101st sanitary train was in command of Lieut. Col. Fred E. Jones of Quincy.

The 101st Sanitary Train with Major Henry H. Wheelock of Fitchburg commanding, included former Rhode Island cavalrymen and members of the old company of this state. This train was the first American unit under fire, according to Major Wheelock.

INFANT MORTALITY HIGH

Lowell had the highest infant mortality rate of any large city in the entire country for the week ending April 12. The city's rate was 26.5. Rochester was second with 25.6. Providence third, with 22.8, and Fall River fourth, with 18.4. Nashville, Tenn., was low with 4.5 and the average was 13.7.

MISS HARD'S SHORTHAND SCHOOL

MRS. BLANCHIE HARD MURPHY, Principal

Do you realize that the government is reaching out into every department of life for more tax upon the public?

Are you aware that the searching after taxes has caused an enormous enlargement of the government departments?

If you are a stenographer YOU can get a position in some department of the United States. Many have risen from such beginnings to a high place and large salary.

Miss Hard's Shorthand School is fitting, and has fitted successfully for such work.

She is the leading exponent of the Pitman shorthand in this region.

A court reporter herself, she educates others for that work.

Learn shorthand in this school, and you will be able to read your notes.

WARNS GERMAN NATION

German Writer Says Peace

Terms Must Be Accepted—

Blames Ex-Kaiser For War

BERLIN, Thursday, April 17.—In an article by Edward Bernstein, the Vorwarts warns the German nation of the dangers attendant upon a refusal to sign the terms of peace and declares the world will not absolve former Emperor William and his advisers from responsibility for all the misery of the war.

The article points out the enormous damage done to French territory and says:

"Everyone acquainted with the facts knows that the allied demand for the delivery of coal for a specified period is based upon economic necessities, although a legitimate objection can be made to the demand for pledging the output of the entire Saar district. In any case, we cannot save the Saar district for Germany by threats."

NEEDLE CRAFT SHOP

INTERESTS ALL WOMEN

The Needle Craft Shop at 27-31

Palmer street is a place of art and a great attraction for women who are

ALSACE-LORRAINE CO. CLEANS AND DYES

Alsace-Lorraine in Europe is what France was fighting for, but Alsace and Lorraine in Lowell is the home of clothes dyeing, cleaning, pressing and repairing and that place is located at 441 Moody Street. It is in charge of competent workmen who will give you 100 cents worth for every dollar spent. Alsace & Lorraine also make suits to order for ladies and gents and their work is the best ever. Their telephone number is 1359-W.

Y'CAN BORE SQUARE HOLES NOW

Maybe you've heard the carpenters kid the apprentices by sending them after the square hole auger. It's not a joke any more. Here is C. H. Schmidgall, who has invented the "mechanically impossible," a rotary drill that bores a square hole. Not only does it bore a square hole, but all the other holes that show at the left of the picture. He's got his absolute patents and ought to be on the way to a fortune.

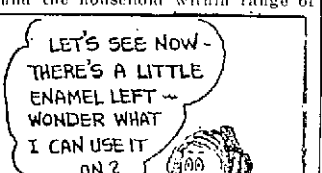

CASH REGISTERS ARE PROFIT PROTECTORS

You ought to protect yourself, your employees and your business by equipping your establishment with a cash register, and if you buy one, be sure you get the right kind, a National.

C. D. A. Grasse, with an office at 422 Wyman's Exchange, carries a full line of Nationals and his prices are right. He has also a number of registers of the second hand type at good bargains. If you cannot go to his office, consult him by telephone. His number is 3313-W.

THIS IS WHAT HAPPENS Ain't Nature Wonderful—by Gene Ahern.

Let a can of white enamel lie loose around the household within range of the wife's eagle eye, and see what happens. That female curiosity akin to mine's, will grab her by the ears and steer her to a can-opener. First, she "just wants to see what it looks like." Then she gets a brush to try out, "a little dab here and there." Thinkers with the lining of the ice chest, "just to see if it will make much of a change." Finally the ice box has a new petticoat. One thing leads to another. She tries a few touches on the bathroom tiling. From there to the bedroom woodwork, then to the wicker chairs. All get the same finish as the ice box! When that's all done, and there's just a brushful left in the can, does she quit? Nay. She'll find a place for it even if it goes on an old black straw hat!

LITHUANIA'S LITERATURE

The new republic on the Baltic, Lithuania, has its distinct literature. The invention of printing in the sixteenth century gave rise to a purely Lithuanian literature, western Lithuania being particularly productive in this regard. Of the 59 Lithuanian books published from 1547 to 1701, 24 were designed for the Protestants of Prussian Lithuania, 8 for Calvinists, and 27 for the Roman Catholics of Lithuania. Prof. Volter is of the opinion that the dearth of information about the history of the Lithuanian language and literature can be ascribed to the fact that the remnants of this literature were destroyed about the 17th century. Many of these books have disappeared entirely; in fact, single copies of only a few of them are still extant. They were written and published exclusively by Lithuanians who had received their education in the University of Konigsberg or at the Academy of Vilnius.

JOSEPH D. DUBOIS
SAILS FOR FRANCE

Joseph D. Dubois of 24 Gold street, a prominent agent for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., and a well known young man of this city, has been appointed a Knight of Columbus secretary for service overseas. He left for New York this morning and will sail for France within a few days. Mr. Dubois has been connected with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. as schedule of demands of the workers to the postmaster general and several suggestions from the standpoint of the public. He declared the postmaster general was impressed with the gravity of the situation. "The situation certainly does not look any worse," Mr. Peters said.

TELEPHONE GIRLS
MAKE STATEMENT

BOSTON, April 18.—A. B. Burleson, postmaster general, has proclaimed throughout the country that we have come on strike without having submitted any demands to him, officially, or to the company. These are the facts: "On Oct. 30, 1918, a committee composed of Julia S. O'Connor, Mary E. Jane and Mary W. Mahoney, presented our new wage schedule to General Manager William A. Driver, New England Telephone & Telegraph Company. Later, on Nov. 14, this schedule was returned to the committee by Mr. Driver, who denied any jurisdiction.

"Thereupon the committee, on Nov. 20, submitted a copy of the same schedule to the Ryan board, after having received assurances it had jurisdiction.

"After repeated, unsuccessful attempts by Miss Julia O'Connor, then a member of the Ryan board, to have this board take up this schedule, Miss O'Connor was finally, on Jan. 28, 1919, forced to resign from the Ryan board, as a protest against unfair tactics of this board in pigeon-holing our schedule.

"Thereafter, on March 24, a committee composed of Mary W. Mahoney, Mary E. Jane, Bridie Powers, Katherine McGovern, Mary Brady, Helena Smith and Helen Moran, waited upon Mr. Burleson himself and presented to him personally another copy of this same wage scale. This copy, we were told, Mr. Burleson himself had sent to the Ryan board.

"So that already this wage schedule, which Mr. Burleson persists in saying has not yet reached him officially, has been presented by us to the Ryan board, and has been presented by us to Mr. Burleson himself.

"Mr. Burleson, and now also Mr. Tumulty, suggest that we go through all this process of being kicked from pillar to post for five months and a half all over again, with no promise of any different result after five or six months more of weak evasion and quibbling.

"For the state committee: Julia O'Connor, Mary E. Jane, Mary W. Mahoney, Helena Smith, Bridie Powers, Katherine McGovern, Mary Brady, Helen Moran."

Gates learn the details of the treaty which they will be asked to sign. This will delay proceedings to some extent. It is believed, and it is not expected that the German delegation can go to Weimar, receive instructions and return to Paris before May 8.

No Discussion—May Ask Questions

According to plans formulated at the conference, the German delegates will be permitted to ask questions to elucidate obscure points, but nothing approaching a discussion of the terms will be permitted. Only President Wilson and the allied premiers will be present when the terms are presented to the Germans. It is expected the League of Nations will have the place of honor in the terms to be presented.

Japan to Present Claims Tomorrow

Japan will bring before the council of four on Saturday the subject of Kiao-Chau, the German fortress in the Far East, and it is expected that a decision will be announced soon.

Tiger Agrees to Feed Russia

Premier Clemenceau who refused on Wednesday to join in the conditional agreement to feed Russia through neutral nations has at last attached his name to the undertaking. Letters exchanged between the council of four and the committee in charge of sending supplies to the Russians indicate that conditions in Russia are critical.

Libau Seized By Huns

Libau has been seized by German and Baltic-German troops, according to advices received at Copenhagen. The latter's provisional government has been ousted and some of the ministers imprisoned. A British mission is at Libau and British warships are in the harbor and it may be that some action will be taken against the Germans.

Fighting in Munich

Telegraphic communication between Berlin and Munich has been severed and Bamberg, Bavaria, is also off from Berlin. German government and Bavarian soviet troops have been fighting at Munich for the past few days and it is believed that one party or the other cut the telegraph lines.

FOCH TO ACT IF GERMANS BALK

PARIS, Thursday, April 17. (Havas.)—Military experts, under the direction of Marshal Foch, have been charged with the drafting of a report on what shall be done if Germany refuses to sign the treaty of peace. It is indicated that in such an event the allies will occupy more German territory, blockade German ports and discontinue the despatch of food supplies to Germany.

Strikers Hold Meeting

proving hourly and that 20 young women outside of the union are operating at the switchboard. He estimated that 20,000 calls are being handled daily, and arrangements have now been made to care for emergency calls day and night. These are calls which may come from the police and fire departments and hospitals, but calls going to these places have to take their chances of being answered. The switchboard was closed last night between the hours of 6 and 10 o'clock, but from the latter time until 7 o'clock this morning, limited service was given.

The 20 operators on duty at the building are being taken to and from their work in automobiles and mid-day meals are being served them in the building.

The Lowell Trades and Labor council went on record last night as being strongly behind the strikers and said that unless Lowell corporations and plants employing union labor refrain from allowing their employees to work at the telephone company as strike breakers the labor unions of the city will take prompt action against them.

The action of the council was taken following a meeting at which a delegation of striking operators and electrical workers protested against such action on the part of Lowell concerns. Pres. Frank Warneck of the council was empowered to visit George S. Motley, president of the Lowell Gas Light Co., which is said to have supplied girls to the telephone exchange this week and request that the girls be removed. Similar action will be taken against textile concerns who also have supplied girls, it is said.

The protest made to the council last night was presented by William F. Sadler, for the male workers, and Marguerite Jennings, Gertrude Cullen, Mollie Hughes and Tassie Quinn for the operators.

Teachers as Strike Breakers?

A delegation from the striking operators called upon William L. Crowley, school committee man, this morning and said that school teachers of Lowell were working as operators at the local switchboard and protested against it. Richard Brabrook Walsh, chairman of the school committee, also heard of it, and immediately began an investigation. Mr. Crowley said that if the report proved true he should be in favor of requesting the resignations of such teachers after a hearing, and quoted section 21 of the school committee rules, which says:

"Teachers may for hire give instruction to pupils outside of school hours provided that such instruction shall not interfere with their work in the public schools. Teachers may work for salary or wages during the summer vacation but except as herein provided shall do no other work during the school year, except by special permission of the committee."

BULLETIN

League of Nations

April 18, 1919.

How do those who object to "sending our troops to settle," or to put it sensibly to "help and do our part in all parts," how do they expect the U.S.A. to act? Is in any of these far-away parts of the world, our fellow-citizens are insulted, unjustly treated or killed?—if by any such country the U.S.A. were to be denied?

Without a League of Nations, the court to which to bring our complaints, we should properly and quickly and, urged by an excited and incensed public opinion, be sending our boys over there and taking the matter into our hands.

Of course, the U.S.A. could bar all intercourse with other nations, except at the personal risk and responsibility of those who selected to trade and travel outside the U.S.A. and America, leaving such to their fate; but this is not at all likely.

What we want is free communication—freedom for all nations, which means a court to which they can refer for justice. We all want freedom from the militaristic practice of taking the law into our own hands and the League of Nations is the only organization that can accomplish this, and relieve and free the world from this militaristic practice of rushing into war, to resent ill-treatment or offensive action.

Copies of the Constitution of the League of Nations, the Lodge-Lowell Debate, other League of Nations literature and bulletins may be obtained at War Work Headquarters free of charge.

a. m. and arrives at Lowell at 10.45. The special train returns to Camp Devens, leaving Lowell at 11.45 p. m.

On arrival at Lowell, the U. S. Cartridge Co. band will escort the visitors to the South common, where a welcome and the freedom of the city will be offered by the mayor.

Colonel Charles A. Stevens, adjutant, 25th Division, A.C., will respond. Soldiers, sailors and marines already in Lowell will also gather at the South common to participate in this ceremony.

It is the wish of the people of Lowell that the day shall be spent exactly as our guests prefer. The American Red Cross will station its canteen at the South common in the morning to serve any who may desire refreshments. All men in uniform welcome.

The theatres are thrown open to you, dinner and supper provided for at certain hotels and restaurants, and programs of entertainment are arranged by various organizations.

The accompanying ticket is for use at the theatres and restaurants.

The city has arranged for dinner, and supper at the following places, where the ticket coupon will be accepted: Page's restaurant, Chin Lee Co., Yun Ho restaurant, The Canton restaurant, American House, Harristown Hotel, Richardson Hotel.

All the theatres will honor the ticket coupon.

To Shop For

EASTER

This Is Your Last Warning

The weather all this week has hurt the merchants of Lowell and made it hard for women to shop. Bear this in mind. The weather forecast says fair weather today. Women buyers will not find stocks depleted as would have been the case if weather had been good. Prices are slashed today. You have 6 hours more to buy the things that give a man or woman the "finishing touch."

Six hours more to buy an Easter gift to make some heart glad indeed.

doubtful if they will last more than half an hour. The idea is merely to give the people of the city a chance to see their own fighting men in some sort of unit formation, rather than in two and three as has been the case since the arrival of the men from overseas. Mayor Thompson will represent them on behalf of the city and Colonel Stevens will respond. A band concert will live things up a little and that will be the entire extent of the proceedings. From that minute on the soldiers and sailors will do as they please and they will be cordially received wherever they call.

Practically every organization in the city will hold open house for the uniformed men. The Knights of Columbus, Y.M.C.A., Lowell War Camp Community Service, C.M.A.C., Eagles, Elks, Matthews, and various other clubs and fraternities will throw open their doors wide.

The Civic Celebration

The military phase of the celebration, of course, will be paramount, but there will be various other attractions and events to entertain the civilian population. All the theatres will present special holiday programs, an outdoor show will open at the Lakeview avenue grounds, the Crescent A.C. will stage bouts at 2.30 p. m., the main hall introducing Phiney Boyle of Lowell and Benny Valger, the various dance halls will have afternoon and evening programs.

The outdoor sporting season will also formally open with a grammar school track meet on the South common at 9 a. m., amateur ball games on the parks and commons both morning and afternoon, and the opening of the high school baseball season at Spalding park when Lowell high will line up against Manchester high at 3.15 p. m.

Tomorrow evening from 6 to 8 the Lowell Cadet band will give a concert in front of city hall under the auspices of the Lowell council of the Knights of Columbus.

Tomorrow will also have special ecclesiastical significance for Catholics as it will be Holy Saturday and the eucharistic services will be held.

Show Your Colors

It is hoped that there will not be a home or building in Lowell tomorrow without its showing of the national colors. Mayor Thompson has issued a proclamation calling upon everybody to decorate now that the city's heroes are returning and tomorrow it will be especially urgent for everybody to show his or her colors. The downtown section was fairly well adorned today but His Honor wants the residential streets aglow with red, white and blue.

Any information regarding the whereabouts of Raymond Hagar, formerly of Lowell, Mass., will kindly communicate with Matthew M. Black, of 110 West 25th street, New York City.
